SOMEWHAT more than a year ago the Fenians held a National Convention in this city. Mr. George Francis Train came hither with the crowd, greatly insistant on being recognized as a leader. Not being of Irish birth or parentage he was ineligible to membership in the order, but he proposed to compensate for this accidental deficiency by superior zeal. The actual managers of the Convention were intent on making a military movement against the British provinces across our northern border. Mr. Train disdained to deal blows at the extremities of the Empire, but was enthusiastic for a crusade directly against the British domination in Ireland.

Notwithstanding his zeal Mr. Train was ruled out of the Convention. He was denied the privilege of making a speech before it; and then he conceived the idea of creating a diversion in his own favor by an address from the balcony of the St. Charles Hotel. In point of numbers the audience was flattering, but it proved anything but docile and tractable. So long as he simply expatiated on his sympathies with Irishmen in their efforts to wrest their country from British rule, he was listened to with commendable patience; but as soon as he proceeded to advise what should be done his stormy oratory was silenced by a dissent yet more tumultuary. He was baffled, overwhelmed, and constrained to evacuate.

At last the Fenians gave up the enterprise against Canada, and adopted Mr. Train's scheme for a movement in Ireland. It was natural he should desire to go over and see how it worked. It was just as natural the British authorities should lay hands upon him on his arrival within their borders. Perhaps he was even more eager to be a central figure in a sharp controversy between two great nations than to secure Irish independence. His love of notoriety is certainly his predominant weakness, and he has turned himself into many extraordinary shapes in the bare hope of creating a sensation. His last adventure is likely to fill the measure of his ambition.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

—At Baltimore, Wednesday night, an immense mass meeting was held, irrespective of party, on the rights of American citizens abroad. Letters were read from Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, and Senator Conkling of New York. Speeches were made by Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, and Hon. Chas. E. Phelps, of Maryland.

—Gen. Wagner, at Philadelphia, issued his Circular in relation to a Department Convention of the Grand Army of the Republic, to be held at Philadelphia, on the 29th. Matters of great importance under the Constitution and ritual are to be considered, and an election of officers to take place.

—Paul M. Burkes shot his wife in this village, Bennington, last night, firing five shots at her, four of which took effect. She probably cannot live. He was enraged at her for procuring a divorce from him.

—An old freedman, name unknown, was found dead in an old boiler on the levee at Memphis yesterday morning. The Coroner's verdict was death from hunger and exposure.

—Grace Church, the finest Methodist Church in this country, was dedicated yesterday at Wilmington, Delaware.

—Rev. Walter Powell, of the Presbyterian Church, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, died yesterday morning.

Destitution in the South.

EDITORS GAZETTE: Again I am constrained to say to your readers that there is need, especially of clothes and shoes among the freed people, and also among the poor whites of the South. Every letter from our white teachers speak of this, and beg me to send, as in past years, articles of this kind. Partly from ill health and excessive over-work, and partly from a morbid sense of shame, I have delayed doing this. But why should I hesitate? With very many of the people of the South it is a terrible and fearful reality that the Lord's hand presses heavily on them still. Almost every one who has raised cotton has met with positive loss, instead of profit. In many cases, perhaps in the great mass of cases, nothing like the first cost of producing cotton has been realized. There is corn and, therefore, no actual starvation; but where is the meat to come from, without demand for labor, without money, without credit? We may say it is owing to their perverse opposition to reconstruction. We may account for it as we please, the terrible fact is that there is wide spread suffering. This we can in a measure relieve. There are thousands an thousands of cast off garments in these two cities alone, which our own poor would perhaps reject with scorn, which the colored people in the South, at any rate, would gladly receive and thank God that we had not forgotten them in their time of need. Most gladly will I receive and forward, according to my best judgment, all such articles, especially shoes, clothing or money. I can say no more. These articles may be sent to the warehouse of Messrs. C. G. Hussey & Co., No. 37 Fifth street, Pittsburgh.

JOS. J. TRAVILLI,
Gen. Asst. Freedmen's Aid Com. West Va.

—To ascertain the velocity of cannon and musket balls, some interesting experiments are being conducted in the Springfield (Mass.) Armory. Two newly invented machines are used in these experiments, the "electro-ballistic pendulum," which is the invention of Col. Benton, the commandant at the armory, and "Schultz's chronoscope," a machine invented and constructed in Europe. The former is much the simpler of the two. Targets are placed at measured distances apart and connected by electric wires with the machines. In passing from one target to another the ball ruptures the electric current and records its velocity. It is ascertained by these experiments that the ordinary rifle ball of the Springfield musket, with a regulation quantity of powder, passes over one hundred feet from the muzzle of the piece in about the fifteenth part of a second. It thus travels much faster than sound.

—Some time ago a little daughter of a Mr. Bowers mysteriously disappeared from Sandusky, Ohio, and was supposed to have been stolen by gypsies. Since then the father and mother of the child have been constantly searching for the lost one, but without success. They have once or twice obtained traces of the gipsy family, traveling with a mule team, and having with them a white child, but have not been able to overtake them. The mother writes: "We have found five or six little children that are supposed to have been stolen, and we must find ours, although it is a long, dreary waiting."

—A Paris correspondent writes: Every symptom of approaching revolution is apparent in the air. They say that history repeats herself, but the assertion is false, for the symptoms of a revolutionary eruption are the very same as in preceding reigns. The pressure is felt to come from the female influence exercised at the Tuileries, and strange to say the aversion is all shown towards the Empress. "A bas l'Espagnole!" is the cry of 1867, as "A bas l'Italienne!" was that of the Fronde, and "A bas l'Autrichienne!" that of 1786.

—The Burlington (Vt.) Free Press, of the 14th inst., says, regarding the ice bridge over Lake Champlain at that place: "The ice which covers the lake roared steadily yesterday, with a low, continuous hum. This sound is owing to the running of small cracks through the ice, each of which makes an inconsiderable sound, but which, multiplied by thousands, makes a steady roar, which is audible, under favorable circumstances, several miles from the lake. Contrary to what might be supposed, this is a sign of good strong ice.

—A negro girl is in jail in Henrico, Virginia, charged with burning the house of Mr. Magruder, of that county, on Sunday night week. While the house was on fire, a servant carrying crockery to the second story of the kitchen as a place of safety saw a suspicious looking bundle on the bed, and upon examining it found it to be the infant child of Mr. Magruder, and beneath the bed was a pile of shavings to which the torch had already been applied.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, January 23.—A resolution was introduced in the Legislature urging upon Secretary Seward to instruct the United States Minister to demand of the British Government the immediate release of all American citizens imprisoned for political offences, and insist upon the adoption of some fixed policy to insure protection of the rights of American citizens. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

ALASKA.

Progress in Settling the Country—Disturbance with Indians—The Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, January 23.—A late letter from Sitka gives an account of the progress made in settling that country. Interference with the customs of the Indians, together with dishonest dealings with them, is producing great discontent. The weather is very severe, but notwithstanding this fact many strange Indians are coming and going constantly, some from Victoria and others from Fort Simpson, for what purpose is not known. The Russian population is removing, and is being replaced by one more American in its features, and in consequence affairs are changing for the better. The Indians have been discovered in surreptitiously exchanging game for liquor, and in consequence Gen. Davis issued an order compelling all Indians to expose their articles of traffic in the public market places. Many instances of violation of this order have been brought to notice, the offenders arrested, and the liquor confiscated. It has been usual on such occasions for the whole tribe to assemble and demand the release of the offenders, which, if not complied with, resulted in a grand war council, and the launching of savage throats against the whites.

Rains have given place to snow and hail storms, with the thermometer at one hundred and ten degrees below the freezing point. The severe weather prevents progress in city improvements, but some buildings are being erected nevertheless, among which are billiard saloons, restaurants, etc. Burglaries and brutal fights are of frequent occurrence.

The ship Zarita, with two hundred passengers for Russia, and a cargo of furs for London, sailed December 17th. Solemn mass was celebrated aboard before sailing, and Gen. Davis ordered a a parting salute of twenty-one guns.

Deplorable Situation of the Government—Rebels Meeting With Little Opposition.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, January 23.—The steamship Pazaro Del Oceana has arrived from San Domingo on the 11th. The situation of the Dominican government was deplorable. The insurgents were marching onward towards the capital, meeting with slight opposition from the national forces. The inhabitants were hoping for a transfer of territory of the republic to the United States, and for want of provisions were almost in a state of starvation. Paper currency is almost worthless; three hundred dollars in paper currency is worth only one dollar in silver.

The steamer Aguracia from Nayegaep reports experiencing shocks of earthquakes on 17th and 18th inst.

Haytian advices to the 6th instant, state that the Cacos continue their attacks. The Corvette Silvan had captured the Dominican schooner Capitola with General Valero Juanans on board, with an armament of forty men.

Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society—Resolutions by Wendell Phillips—Impeachment—Reconstruction—Stanton—Grant.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette]

BOSTON, January 23.—The Massachusetts Anti-Slavery Society met to-day, and resolutions were offered by Wendell Phillips, regarding the refusal of the Republican party to impeach the President as a grave crime against the nation; regarding with satisfaction the courageous persistency of Congress in its policy of reconstruction; condemning as one of the foulest blots on the nation's honor the cruel desertion of the loyal men of the South, for whom the law has no adequate protection; approving the reinstatement of Secretary Stanton, and opposing Gen. Grant for the Presidency, in the absence of evidence that he sympathizes with the Radical Republican party. Speeches were made by Mr. Phillips, Colonel Higginson, Rev. Mr. Frothinghan, and others, until recess.

Chicago Business Return.

TERRIBLE MURDER AT ST. LOUIS.

Citizen of Rochester, Pa. Killed by the Mate of a Steamboat and Thrown Overboard.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, January 23.—John Swaney mate of the steamer Armadillo, and brother of Captain Swaney, killed William H. Graves, a passenger, from Rochester, Pa., on the Armadillo, last night. Swaney had been drunk during the day and attempted to quarrel with several persons on board. He expressed a strong desire to blow the Clerk's brains out, and subsequently fired at his brother, Captain Swaney. Later in the evening he went up to the texas and commenced eating lunch. Graves entered shortly afterwards when Swaney fiercely asked him if he came to rob him. Graves answered pleasantly, when Swaney shot him, dragged his body to the edge of the hurricane deck and rolled it over board. Swaney then washed the blood from his hands with coffee from the urn on the luncheon table, and went to bed. A short time afterwards he was arrested by a policeman and was to-day committed for murder in the first degree. Graves' body was not found.

BILL CONCERNING THE JURISDICTION OF THE SUPREME COURT

The Committee on Reconstruction this morning agreed on the following bill:

Be it enacted, &c., That the appellate jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States shall not extend to any act done, or which shall be done, or to any proceeding had, or which shall be had, under and by virtue of the act entitled "an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, or of the several acts supplementary thereto, and all such cases now pending in said Court, either by appeal or otherwise from any decision or proceeding had in the premises in any District or Circuit Court of the United States, shall be dismissed by said Supreme Court, and no record of any proceedings had or which may be had before either of the District Commanders, under either of said acts, shall be removed to or reviewed in any other tribunal, either upon habeas corpus, quo warranto, or in any other manner whatever.

The vote of the Committee was in the affirmative, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Stevens, (Pa.,) Boutwell, (Mass.,) Bingham, (O.,) Farnsworth, (Ill.,) Beaman, (Mich.,) and Payne, (O.)—Six.

Nays—Messrs. Hulburd, (Republican, of New York,) Brooks, (N. Y., Democrat,) and Beck, (Ky., Democrat.)—Three.

The bill, if it should become a law, would apply to the McArdle and other cases involving similar Constitutional questions.

AMERICAN NATURALIZED CITIZENS—A BILL FROM COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House this morning agreed upon the following bill, which will be reported by General Banks:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, &c., That all naturalized citizens of the United States while in foreign States shall be entitled and will receive from this Government the same protection of person and property that is accorded to native born citizens in like situation and circumstances, and the President is empowered to use the influence and authority of this Government in all just endeavors to secure the recognition by other Governments of the principles of public law which have been insisted upon and maintained by the Government of the United States in regard to the rights of naturalized citizens; provided always that no citizen, native born or naturalized, who is guilty of crime against the laws of any foreign State, committed within its jurisdiction, or of desertion from actual service in the army or navy of such State, or who shall have acquired naturalization by misrepresentation or fraud, or who, as to residence or otherwise, by treason or other crime against the United States, shall have forfeited or who shall have renounced his rights as a naturalized citizen, shall be entitled to the protection contemplated by this act.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be duly made known to the President that any naturalized citizen of the United States has been arrested or detained by any foreign Government in contravention of the intent and purposes of this act, upon the allegation that naturalization in the United States does not operate to dissolve his allegiance to his native sovereign, that any native born citizen shall have been arrested and detained without charge of crime committed within the jurisdiction of such State, and whose release shall have been unreasonably delayed or refused, the President shall be and is hereby empowered, by way of indemnity and reprisal, to order the arrest, and to detain in custody, any subject of such foreign government who may be found within the jurisdiction of the United States, and the President shall, without unreasonable delay, give information to Congress of such proceedings of indemnity and reprisal.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if any naturalized citizen of the United States shall return to his native country, with intent to resume his domicile therein, shall leave the United States with the intention of permanent residence in any foreign State, or shall engage as an army or navy belligerent in any foreign war or service, such naturalized citizen shall not be entitled to the interposition of the Government in his behalf under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the term domicile in the preceding section shall be construed to mean a continuous residence of more than one year in the native country of the naturalized citizen, or establishing himself in any business which denotes an intention to resume a permanent residence.

NATIONAL BANK STATISTICS.

The following are the most prominent and interesting items taken from an abstract made by the Comptroller of Currency, of the reports made by all the National banks in the United States on the morning of the 6th of January:

| Liabilities. | |
|---|---|
| Capital | $419,843,790 |
| Surplus and Profits | 101,899,856 |
| Circulation | 297,799,882 |
| Deposits | 558,883,774 |
| Due to Banks | 120,007,709 |
| Assets. | |
| Loans and Discounts | $616,165,072 |
| U. S. Bonds and Securities | 420,028,350 |
| Due from Banks | 107,719,119 |
| Checks and other Cash Items | 109,359,335 |
| Bills of other Banks | 16,909,923 |
| Specie | 18,034,519 |
| Legal Tender Notes and National Currency | 116,145,905 |
| Compound Interest Notes and 6 per cent. Certificates | 48,214,480 |

The lawful money reserve in circulation and deposits amounts to thirty-one per cent. of the aggregate circulation, and the deposit amounts required in redemption in cities is twenty-five per cent., out of redemption in cities fifteen per cent. By careful calculation it appears that the Banks are holding in the aggregate over $75,000,000 more than is required.

NOMINATIONS BY THE PRESIDENT.

The President sent to the Senate today the following nominations: Leslie Combs, Marshal for the District of Kentucky, in place of Wm. A. Merryweather, whose term will expire; John M. Johnson, Marshal for Virginia, in place of Jno. Underwood, term expired; John B. Pennington, Attorney for Delaware, in place of John L. Pratt, resigned; Henry Miller, Assesor of Internal Revenue, Fourth District, Ohio; Solomon P. M'Cardy, Chief Justice Supreme Court of Utah, in place of John Titus, commission expired; Enos D. Hage, Associate Justice Supreme Court of Utah; Ambrose Campbell, of Michigan, Register of Land Office at Marquette, Michigan, vice Jas. Welwards, to be removed; Daniel Sigler, of Indiana, Register of Land Office at Natchitoches, Louisiana.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.

The United States steamer Quinneburg arrived at Rio Janeiro December 8. The steamship Idaho had also arrived there. The Wachusett, from the East Indies, reached St. Thomas on the 15th January and would sail in a few days for New York. The Iroquois, from the United States, arrived at Hong Kong on Nov. 2d, and the Onward at Nagaski Nov. 12.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, January 23, 1868.

SENATE.

Certain House bills were referred.

HOUSE SUPPLEMENTARY RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

On the second reading of the "Act supplementary to the act for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, postponed yesterday, by request,

Mr. DOOLITTLE took the floor and said he would move to amend the ordinary motion of reference by adding certain instructions to the Committee. He saw in the bill a complete overthrow of the Constitution in ten States—a realization of the wildest desires of Calhoun—a dual Executive, comprising a President to execute the laws in the North and a military Dictator over a negro Empire in the South. He then moved his amendment before noticed, establishing three qualifications negroes must hold in order to vote: first, military service of one year or more; second, ability to read and write; third, freehold property worth two hundred and fifty dollars.

Mr. DOOLITTLE continued to denounce the measure, saying it empowered Generals of the army to put and keep negroes in power over white men, characterizing it as revolutionary, and as confounding the legislative and executive duties in taking away the power of pardon, until the expiration of the morning hour, when the special order was announced—

THE BILL TO ADMIT SENATOR THOMAS.

Mr. HENDRICKS moved to allow Mr. Doolittle to finish his speech, but after discussion, withdrew the motion.

Mr. STEWART renewed it, moving to suspend all orders and conclude the subject.

Further discussion ensued, during which Mr. EDMUNDS said he hoped Republican Senators would vote. The same question was involved in both cases, as Mr. Doolittle had been applying sentiments that Mr. Thomas had been during the war. Carried—thirty to seventeen, Mr. DOOLITTLE having voted no.

COTTON TAX.

The Committee of Conference on the cotton tax bill reported in favor of the compromise amendments, that cotton imported after July 1st, 1868, shall be exempt from duty. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS, &C.

Mr. HOWARD offered a resolution requesting the President to communicate any and all instructions given to Generals Pope and Meade on taking command of the Fourth Military District, under the Reconstruction acts, or while in command there; also, copies of votes, &c. in the Cabinet respecting said acts. Adopted.

Mr. GRIMES, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill in favor of allowing the sale of iron clads, with an amendment.

Mr. POMEROY introduced a bill amendatory of the Homestead act. Referred.

Mr. THAYER presented a bill for the appointment of a Marshal in the District of Columbia. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

RECONSTRUCTION RESUMED.

Mr. DOOLITTLE continued his remarks, during which Mr. NYE asked what he meant by the term "Radicals at the South?"

Mr. DOOLITTLE—I mean secessionists.

Mr. SUMNER rose to ask a question, but Mr. DOOLITTLE declined to yield, saying he would probably refer to several things that would attract the Senator's attention, and he could answer them afterwards. (Laughter.)

Mr. MORTON asked whether those radicals of the South were not now voting with the Democratic party? (Laughter.)

Mr. DOOLITTLE said that was not the point he was considering, and declined to be further interrupted.

The following is a portion of Mr. DOOLITTLE'S speech:

The result of the recent elections, showing that a majority in the Northern and Western States is opposed to its policy, so far from changing a resolution, (from which the Radical party dare not retreat,) is pushing it on to the madness of despair. It sees that its majority in the North and West is already lost. It dare not exclude the South in the next election. The South must be forced, at the point of the bayonet, by white disfranchisement, and negro suffrage, to vote for the Radical candidate, or he will be beaten. The majority in the Northwestern and Western States against him must therefore be overcome by the negro voters of the South. Now, what do we behold! A dominant majority in this Senate and in Congress, under the lead of Northern Radicalism, at the point of the bayonet forcing negro suffrage and negro governments upon ten States of the Union and six millions of people against their will. We see them practically dissolving the Union by excluding ten States from the Union, thus doing what the rebellion could never do, and what we spent $5,000,000,000 and 500,000 lives of our best and bravest to prevent. For long months we have seen them encroaching steadily and persistently upon the just rights of the Executive, and now, to level their chains upon us, and to crown the whole of their usurpations, they propose to subjugate the Supreme Court and to overthrow justice in her sacred seat in this tribunal of last resort. Sir, we are in the midst of a new revolution, bloodless as yet, but which threatens to destroy the Constitution, and with it the last hope of civil liberty for the world. But let us not despair. Let us not surrender our faith in the people, nor our faith in republican institutions. The people are organizing everywhere, from Maine to California, not upon the dead issues of the past for inglorious defeat. There is too much at stake and they are too terribly in earnest for that. But with living men upon the living issues of the present they will organize for a victory so complete and overwhelming that the votes of the negro States of the South cannot hold the balance of power and decide the election against them. That same patriotism which led hundreds of thousands of Democrats to sustain the Republican party in putting down the rebellion of the Southern Radicals, will now lead hundreds of thousands of Republicans to act with the Democratic party to overcome the no less dangerous doctrines of the Radicals of the North. They are fighting in the same cause of the Union and the Constitution, and for the spirit which gives them life.

Mr. MORTON repeated his question whether the Radicals of the South, or Secessionists, are not now acting with the Democratic party, and did not so act before the war.

Mr. DOOLITTLE said there were three parties in the Southern States before the war, but the majority acted with the Democratic party. It might be that some of those Radicals were now acting with the Democratic party North.

Mr. SUMNER—Is there any doubt of it?

Mr. DOOLITTLE—I never knew a majority in which there were not some Radicals. This majority here has several. [Laughter.]

Mr. NYE obtained the floor, but yielded to Mr. TRUMBULL, who, after alluding to the claim of the Democratic party to be the friend of the Constitution and the Union, said it was a little remarkable that it embraced all the men who fought against the Constitution and Union, as well as the measures the Senator had denounced as unconstitutional, which were originated by the men who had fought and legislated to maintain them. He denied that, as claimed by the Senator, the Union was in imminent danger. He did not think that Senator and his associates had the power to peril it; but it is only possible the danger lay in their misapprehension of the design of the Republican party, and in such speeches as that just made. Reciting the progress of the Southern Conventions, he said reconstruction was going on and would soon restore the Southern States to the Union and release them from the military despotism which so alarmed the Senator. Why could he not join in their endeavors to give these States republican Governments and place them in the hands of loyal men. They had only to stand by those measures to witness their speedy accomplishment. The Senator had complained that Congress would not modify its policy. Certainly not. They had adopted, after mature deliberation, their excellent plan for reconstruction and restoration. If not the best possible, it is the best they could agree upon. No fatal defects had been found in it and the amendatory act had been caused by an attempt to thwart its execution. He hoped in future legislation they would adhere to the original intent of Congress. In reply to Mr. Doolittle's assertion that they intended to place the South under negro control, he pointed to the excess of the white over the black population in all the States but South Carolina. If the whites had not registered, it was the fault of that Senator, and such speeches as his. The Senator said that the few leaders disfranchised embraced all the brains and talent of the South, and he had been frank enough to say that the majority of the Southern whites had been opposed to the rebellion. They were forced into it by these very leaders, who were therefore the last men to be entrusted with authority so large. That it was sought to establish negro supremacy was untrue. Even in the Southern Conventions a majority of the members were white. To Mr. Doolittle's argument that they had recognized the validity of the Southern States Governments by submitting to them the Constitutional Amendments for ratification, he replied that it might as well be claimed that President Lincoln had recognized them by going down to Fortress Monroe to negotiate with them. Had these amendments been ratified, doubtless Congress would have recognized them as valid. Congress, after waiting patiently to see what would be the result of the President's attempted reorganization, and finding they would certainly go into the hands of the rebels, took the necessary steps to reconstruct them in accordance with the Constitution and the safety and peace of the country. He denied the Senator's claim that they were not willing these States should be admitted. They were striving to have them organized so they could be received as States in the Union. The territories and people were there, and the people of South Carolina had been as much subject to the laws during the whole rebellion, in a loyal point view, as before they destroyed their State organization, and could perform no political act repairing such organization. Hence they could not elect a Senator, the Constitution requiring Senators to be elected by the legislature. The rebel legislature they elected in 1862 was not such as is contemplated by the Constitution, having taken an oath not to support the Constitution, as required, but to support a Government set up in opposition to the United States. Therefore their representation ceased. The rebellion had gone on until the civilized world, including the Judicial tribunals and Congress, pronounced it a cruel war. When that rebellion was overthrown, and General Sherman took possession of South Carolinr, there being no one there to preserve the peace, anarchy must have ensued had they not been controlled by military authority for a time, until the people could be organized in harmony with the United States, which President Johnson undertook to do without convening Congress and failed. Had the people voluntarily abandoned their hostility in 1865, called a convention, recognized the rights of all men, and the extinction of slavery and the authority of law, they would have been recognized by Congress. Suppose they had set up a monarchy, was it contended that we must recognize it? If not, then Congress was the judge, and until Congress recognized the State governments of the South, there was none. The Constitutional amendments were submitted to the Southern States by the Secretary of State, not Congress, though even had they done it, it would not be, in his judgment, an act of recognition. Had they adopted them, however, and done well in other respects, probably Congress would have recognized them. Who could say when military power should cease, when rebellion was put down? Could General Sherman? He was a creature of the law, subject to the regulations of Congress. Could the President? Was he anything more than General Sherman, except as Commander-in-Chief? As President he could only see that the laws were faithfully executed, and if General Sherman could not set up a civil Government in the South, they were bound to recognize neither. Could Andrew Johnson, his power over them being as Commander-in-Chief and not as the President, so far as it differed from his power over Ohio and Illinois? No line or word in the Constitution gave him any such power as Commander-in-Chief. Then he was subject to the regulation of Congress, the Legislative Department, which had decided that no legal governments existed in the South. That ended the question. Neither did the question belong to the Judiciary. As well might the Judiciary attempt to stop the approach of our advancing armies into rebel States, as decide what governments shall be or are established. Could they issue a mandamus to compel a military commander to leave those States, when Congress sent him there to preserve peace, making use of local tribunals or loyal organizations, with power to remove them if they proved obstreperous?

Replying to Mr. Doolittle's plea for the suffering at the South, by contrasting it with the consequences the war had brought on the North, he said that during the war he had favored making the rebellion odious by meting out to rebels the treatment they gave to loyalists South by confiscation and otherwise. Now, however, he favored restoring them, with the exception of the leaders, to an equality with other citizens, allowing them to vote.

The death of Representative Hamilton, of Ohio, was announced and appropriate resolutions adopted, on which Mr. SHERMAN addressed the Senate.

Adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

ADDITIONAL BOUNTY BILL.

The House resumed the consideration of the Senate amendment to the House bill in relation to an additional bounty, the question being on an amendment reported from the Committee on Military Affairs.

The Senate amendment, which is a substitute for the House bill, provides that if a person entitled as a soldier to the bounty provided by section 12th and 13th, of the act July 28th, 1866, dies before receiving it, the bounty shall be paid to his heirs as designated in the order named therein, and to none other.

The amendments of the Committee add after the word "person" the words "or persons," and strike out the words "a soldier."

After considerable discussion the House seconded the previous question, the amendments reported by the Committee on Military Affairs were agreed to, and the Senate amendment as amended agreed to—yeas eighty-four, nays fifty-two.

EXTRA PAY PETITION.

Mr. GARFIELD, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported back adversely the petition of volunteer officers now residing at Norristown, Pa., praying Congress to pass an act entitling all of the late volunteer army commissioned since March 3d, 1865, to the three months extra pay allowed. He stated that this was a specimen of many similar applications. The petition was laid on the table.

SALE OF MILITARY RESERVATIONS.

Mr. PILE, from same Committee, reported a bill authorizing the Secretary of War to sell, at such time and place as he deems most advantageous to the Government, the grounds now occupied by the United States Arsenal at Liberty, Mo., with the public buildings, machinery, &c.; also, that portion of the Fort Leavenworth reservation lying east of Missouri river and that portion on the west side which lies between the city limits of Leavenworth and a line commencing at the north of Corral Ravine and running parallel with the southern line of the reservation to its western boundary; grounds of St. Louis Arsenal are to be divided into lots for building purposes, and divided into streets, &c., one third to be paid in cash; grounds of the Liberty Arsenal and Fort Leavenworth reservation to be sold at public auction, after due notice, in such lots as may be deemed advantageous to the Government. The Secretary of War is to establish an Arsenal at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., for repair and storage of arms, at a cost not exceeding $200,000.

Mr. WILSON, Iowa, moved to strike out that part of the fourth section of the bill providing for the establishment of an armory at Jefferson Barracks, and he moved to amend by striking out the word "repair."

The bill gave rise to considerable discussion, which was participated in by Messrs. WASHBURNE, Illinois, WILSON, Iowa, MUNGEN, BARNES, LOGAN, CLARKE, Kansas, BOUTWELL, HARDING, GARFIELD, WASHBURNE, Indiana, PILE, Missouri, and STEVENS, Pennsylvania.

Mr. VAN WYCK moved to amend the bill by requiring the lots of the St. Louis arsenal to be sold separately.

Mr. PILE said there was no objection to that.

Mr. CLARKE, Kansas, moved to amend by a proviso that Fort Leavenworth reservation, west of Missouri river, should be sold in lots not exceeding ten acres.

Mr. PILE moved to amend by restricting the expenditure of Jefferson Barracks Arsenal to $150,000.

Mr. MAYNARD moved to table the bill and the amendments. Negatived.

Messrs. VAN WYCK and CLARKE'S amendments were agreed to.

Mr. PILE'S amendment limiting the expenditure at Jefferson Barracks was also agreed to.

Mr. MUNGEN moved to amend by providing that Fort Leavenworth reservation shall be sold in lots of half an acre, separately if desired by purchasers. Agreed to.

Mr. DODGE moved to amend by adding a proviso that the machinery, ordnance, stores and arms which the government may desire to reserve from sale shall be stored at any arsenal now established by law. Agreed to.

The bill then passed.

IN MEMORIAM.

The death of the late Cornelius S. Hamilton, of the Eighth Congressional District, Ohio, was then, at 2 o'clock, announced by his colleague, Mr. LAWRENCE, who pronounced a eulogy and offered appropriate resolutions.

Eulegies were also made by Messrs. MORGAN, BUCKLAND and WELKER.

The resolutions were adopted and the House, at a quarter before three o'clock, adjourned.

Explosion of a Chinese Arsenal.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette]

BOSTON, January 23.—The Traveler contains correspondence dated, Shanghaie, November 27th which gives the following details of an explosion in China:

News has just reached us of a terrible explosion in the Chinese arsenal at Wenhunn, opposite Hankow. The loss of life has not been definitely ascertained, but some persons estimate it as high as five thousand. Probably one thousand is nearer the number of killed and wounded. No Europeans were hurt. The shock was distinctly heard at Kinkiang, one hundred and twenty miles dist nt.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

ARREST OF A FORGER.

A Philadelphia Sharper Arrested in Pittsburgh—How it was Accomplished.

A young man, who has for some weeks past excited some attention in this city, by his lavish expenditure of money, was arrested last evening on a charge of forgery, by a detective officer from Philadelphia, assisted by Chief Scott and officer Rivers. The facts leading to his arrest are as follows:

About the first of January a check for $630, payable to David Hall, was presented at the Southwark National Bank of Philadelphia, and duly cashed. The check bore the signature, apparently genuine, of Mr. Alexander Young, a very wealthy and widely known liquor dealer in Philadelphia. A few days subsequently, another check, bearing the same signature, and drawn for $760,99, was presented at the same bank and cashed without suspicion. This check was made payable to another individual, whose name we did not learn. The operator seems to have taken a resting spell then until the 20th inst. On Wednesday last the following letter was received at the bank mentioned:

PITTSBURGH, January 20, 1868.

PAYING TELLER—Dear Sir: Enclosed you will find a check for $780.70, which I got on Saturday afternoon. It was too late to draw the money—I had business to attend to here, and had to come on here. You will please to send a draft for the enclosed. Respectfully,

JOHN LAUGHLIN,
In care of Evans' Novelty, &c.

The letter contained a check for $780.70, signed by Mr. Young, and made payable to John Laughlin or order. Suspicion was aroused by the letter, and investigation ensued. Investigation led to the discovery that all three of the checks were forgeries. The matter was immediately placed in the hands of Messrs Joshua Taggart and George H. Smith, detective officers in Philadelphia, who took prompt measures. The following letter was written to the bank correspondent:

PHILADELPHIA, January 22, 1868.

MR. LAUGHLIN—Enclosed you will find all you desire from me. We take great pleasure in handing it to you.

Yours, truly,
GEORGE H. SMITH.

The enclosure was a check was made payable to "Forger, three or five years in the Eastern Penitentiary, or as the Judge shall order." The whole was enclosed in an envelope directed as ordered, and properly stamped and postmarked. With this Mr. Smith started for this city, arriving here about three o'clock yesterday afternoon. He immediately secured the services of Chief of Police Scott and officer Rivers, who accompanied him to Evans' "Novelty" on Fifth street. There the letter was given to the clerk with proper directions, and the officers waited. Shortly afterwards a young man came in and called for the letter. It was delivered to him and Chief Scott and officer Rivers approached him. He made a sudden dart out of the door, however, and ran like a deer. Chief Scott finally overtook him on Virgin alley and he was conducted to the Mayor's office. He had thrown the letter away, but it was found on the pavement. He asserted strongly his innocence, but admitted that the last check was forged in a room in the second story of a building on Sixth street, alleging that another man forged it, however. He states the others were both forged in Philadelphia. On his person was found a blank check on the Third National Bank of Pittsburgh. The prisoner is a young man, gives his name as John Sargent, and says he resides in Philadelphia. He and a friend arrived here some two or three weeks ago, and made themselves quite conspicuous by their lavish expenditure of money. The friend stated that he had spent considerable time in Arizona, where he had struck a rich lead of silver. He was on his way thither with his friend Sargent. The "other young man" had not been arrested last evening.

Sargent is in the lock-up, and will be removed to Philadelphia to-day by detective Smith.

The Parkersburg Murderer—Confession of the Culprit.

The Parkersburg Times says the trial of Joseph Eisele alias Joseph Schafer, charged with the murder of Lilienthal and Tsutor, and with attempting to kill John White, was had before a special term of the Circuit Court of Wood county, Va., Monday. The Grand Jury in the morning found true bills on all the charges. The Court met again at two o'clock amid the greatest excitement. Crowds of people thronged the court yard, and as the prisoner was conducted to Court some cried hang him! hang him!

Eisele made the following confession, which was read by an interpreter:

I wish this may be read to the people at my next trial. I, the undersigned, confess from my own free will that I am the murderer of Aloys Ulrich, Joseph Lilienthal and Randolph Tutor, and that I intended also to kill the fourth man, if Almighty God had not prevented it, for which I thank him on my knees day and night. I want no witnesses and no defense, and cannot really give any reason for my misdeeds, except that the evil spirit led me into temptation, and could not resist it. I am willing to sacrifice my blood and life for my crimes, and hope that Almighty God will forgive me, and after death receive me into his kingdom. I therefore beg the people present their forgiveness. I have no enmity towards any one in the world, and acknowledge that I deserve all that may befall me and am ready to bear it all with patience. I especially beg my German countrymen for their forgiveness for the great disgrace I have brought upon them, and hope every one will forgive me. I also beg the American people not to think ill of the Germans, who are not to be held responsible because one of their countrymen is a wicked man.

I beg also that no disgrace may attach to my wife, who is free from blame, as I always arranged matters so that she would not have any suspicion. I also pray that those whom I owe may not think that they will be defrauded. I am anxious to give each man his own as near as possible. I have made my last will and testament, which will be opened after my death, and hope I shall be able to realize enough to refund his own to every man. I have also written down my life, which is an example to every one who may read it, and all can see what follows when a man omits his prayers and disregards religion.

JOSEPH EISELE.

After the reading of this confession, the prisoner was remanded for sentence.

Dissolution and Copartnership.—In another column it is announced that the well known firm of Caldwell & Bro., dealers in boat stores and ship chandlers, have disposed of their business to Messrs. Evans, Dallas & Gilmore, who will continue the trade at the old stand, No. 90 Water street. We wish the new firm a large share of success and prosperity, and earnestly commend the members to the confidence and patronage of our readers.

Primary Meeting.—On Saturday afternoon next, between the hours of four and six o'clock, the Republican voters of the Second Ward will assemble in primary meeting to nominate a candidate to be voted for at the special election to be held on Monday next, to supply the vacancy occasioned in Common Council by the resignation of Thomas Steele, Esq.

New Heater.—Elsewhere we advertise a new heater for public and private buildings, which needs only to be known to become very generally adopted. Mr. Biddle Arthurs, proprietor and patentee, No. 152 Fourth street, is prepared to furnish it in this county, and to dispose of full and exclusive county rights. See advertisement on our second page.

Reduced Prices.—Mr. James P. Tanner, the well known and extensive wholesale boot and shoe dealer, No. 56 Wood street, offers his entire stock of fashionable and well made goods a greatly reduced prices in order to make room for fresh spring supplies. See advertisement.

THE OIL INTERESTS.

Annual Meeting of the Petroleum Association—Oil Contracts for 1868—The Gauging Bill in Congress—Bonded Warehouse for Philadelphia—The Railroad Freights—Election of Officers for 1868, Etc.

The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh Petroleum Association was held yesterday morning, at their room in Dalzell Building, corner of Duquesne Way and Irwin street. The President, R. W. Burke, Esq., occupied the chair, and H. M. Long, Esq., officiated as Secretary.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

FORM OF OIL CONTRACTS.

Mr. Hutchinson presented the report of the Committee on Contracts, being the form of agreement recommended for the sales of oil for the ensuing year, which, after an amendment by Mr. Kirk, was adopted, as follows:

(Place and date.)

Bought of the ——— of Pittsburgh, for account of the ———, of ———, ——— barrels refined petroleum in bond, (barrels not to average less than forty gallons nor more then forty-five gallons net,) at ——— cents per gallon, packages included. Color ———. Burning test—one hundred and ten degrees (110 degrees,) Fahrenheit, or upwards. To be delivered in bonded warehouse in ———, in prime shipping order, between the ——— and ——— days of ———, 1868, at buyer's option, with at least ten days' notice to sellers.

In case no notice is given, it is to be delivered and paid for on the ——— day of ———, 1868.

Terms, cash on delivery.

(Signed,) ——— ———, Brokers.

Mr. Kirk offered the following resolution, which, after some discussion, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the contract read be adopted as the standard contract of this Association, and that the Committee have one hundred copies of it printed and forwarded to the brokers and commission merchants of the country, and request them to copy it.

THE FIFTEEN DAYS' OPTION QUESTION.

A difference of opinion existing between the members of the Association in regard to what was really fifteen days' option, the following resolution, offered by Mr. Logan, was adopted, after some discussion:

Resolved, That the construction this Association put upon their pledge is that fifteen days' option is fifteen days including the five days' provided to be within the time.

CHANGING THE MODE OF GAUGING.

The Secretary read a communication from Hon. J. K. Moorhead, our Representative in Congress, stating that the petition of the Association to have the mode of gauging oil changed, had been referred to the Committee of Ways and Means, where it will receive proper attention at the time the bill is taken up. At present the committee is engaged on the whisky tax, and as soon as they are through with that matter they will mature the full bill before they report, which will be perhaps two months hence.

Mr. Long then offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Messrs. Charles Lockart, Wm. Forsythe and William P. Logan, the Committee on Gauging, be authorized to proceed to Washington City and confer with our Representatives, to whom the subject has been referred, and endeavor to have the change in the mode of gauging made as soon as possible.

A BONDED WAREHOUSE IN PHILADELPHIA.

The following preamble and resolution, offered by a member of the Association, was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Bonded Warehouse system in Philadelphia has been conducted in rather a loose and unsatisfactory manner, and whereas, the manufacturers have been subjected to unjust and exorbitant charges, advancing of rates, &c., &c. Therefore be it

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by this Association, whose duty it shall be to canvass the trade, prepare plans and specifications, and take all necessary steps for the establishing in Philadelphia of a Bonded Warehouse, to be built and conducted by persons appointed by the Pittsburgh Petroleum Association, the profits arising from such Warehouse to belong to the Association.

The Chair appointed Messrs. Kirk, Long and Forsythe as a Committee, in accordance with the resolution.

THE RAILROAD FREIGHTS.

Mr. David Kirk presented the written report of the Committee on Railroads, setting forth at length the grievances which the Petroleum dealers of the city suffer at the hands of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. Accompanying the report was the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Railroad Committee, as soon as appointed, be instructed to proceed to Philadelphia and endeavor to get the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to unite with the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company in establishing a rate of freight that will do justice to the petroleum interests of Pittsburgh.

FINANCIAL REPORT.

The Finance Committee presented their report, which was referred to the Executive Committee.

VOTE OF THANKS.

On motion of Mr. Kirk, a vote of thanks be returned to the President, Vice Presidents and Secretary of the Association, for the faithful manner in which they have performed their duties during the past year.

Mr. Long offered the following, which was adopted.

Resolved, That our thanks are hereby tendered to the reporters of the Commercial, GAZETTE and Dispatch for their uniform kindness in reporting business transacted in our meetings during the year.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Association then proceeded to an election of officers to serve for the ensuing year, when the following gentlemen were elected:

President—H. M. Long.

Vice Presidents—Charles Lockhart and Wm. H. Forsythe.

Secretary and Treasurer—A. F. Brooks.

Executive Committee—R. S. Waring, David Kirk and B. S. Musgrave.

Mr. Long was called upon, and returned thanks to the Association for the honor conferred upon him in electing him to preside over their deliberations during the coming year.

A STANDING RAILROAD COMMITTEE.

On motion of Mr. Kirk, it was resolved that the chair be instructed to appoint a standing Railroad Committee of five at his earliest convenience.

On motion, the Association then adjourned.

Pittsburgher in Want.—The Cincinnati Gazette says in its report of the Mayor's docket of that city: James Campbell applied for transportation for his wife and two children to Pittsburgh, near which place he had friends living. The family had for some years resided on Island No. 70, in the Mississippi river, but the high water of last year destroyed all their stock, and forced them to leave. From that time until the application for transportation was made, they had gained a subsistence by begging. They were sent to Pittsburgh.

Daily Arriving.—At Joseph Horne & Co.'s wholesale, retail and notion house, No. 77 and 79 Market street, new goods are daily arriving and the immense stock is now full and complete in every department. The goods have been purchased at the depressed prices prevailing in the Eastern markets, and are offered to the patrons of the house at remarkably cheap prices. Dealers who buy to sell again will find it greatly to their advantage to favor Horne & Co. with a purchasing visit, while filling up or selecting new stocks.

Sad Accident.—A little boy, a son of Wm. K. Nesbit, of South Fayette township, was burned to death on Tuesday evening. The little fellow, who was only two years of age, fell upon the stove while his mother was drawing a pail of water, from the effects of which he died shortly afterwards.

The New Police.—The appointments of the new police, which were to have been made last evening, have been postponed as will be seen by reference to another column, and all applicants for appointments are requested to meet at Wilkins' Hall, Tuesday evening, January 28th, at seven o'clock.

Indecent Assault.—Lena Seibold yesterday made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Gotlieb Tsutoch with assault and battery with intent to commit rape. She alleges that the accused came to her dwelling in Temperanceville, and made an indecent assault upon her. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Mr. Ford, Republican, has introduced into the House at Harrisburg a bill abolishing the infamous "Tioga" law, which has given so much just cause for complaint among workingmen.

Elsewhere we publish the professional card of Robt. Arthurs, Esq., Attorney at Law, No. 185 Fourth street, who has resumed practice after an extended tour in the Old World.

A Great Invention—Safety from Fires.

There has just been introduced into general use an article which is destined not only to grow popular but likewise to prove of incalculable benefit in preventing the frequency of fires. We refer to the patent "Safety Fire Jacket or Strange," owned by Mr. J. B. Harris, who has it on exhibition, and manufactures to order, at the Ne Plus Ultra Paint Works, corner of Morris street and the line of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, in the Ninth ward. This great invention is simple in its construction, and yet will accomplish even more than has been claimed for it. It is made to any shape required, either circular or square, and is used to prevent fire from communicating from fire pipes, flues, steamboat chimneys and other metal smoke or fire tubes, to the floors, decks or roofs in proximity. It is metallic in construction, being simple and effective in accomplishing its purpose, can be placed on a single partition, where piping passes through, or be made to any given or required length; that in the passage of piping any distance where it may come in contact with combustible materials, that line of distance can be made perfectly secure by enclosing the piping in a metallic wrapper, so constructed in formation as to resist the most intense heat. All railroad cars can have the same placed immediately about the stoves, and also around the sides of the cars adjacent thereto, as well as upon the floors near the stoves, which will render them secure from those serious accidents that often occur from the cars being set on fire by the sudden derangement of the stoves when a collision occurs. This invention is calculated to afford protection to whatever portion of the car it may be attached. For ships or steamboats where piping has to be carried between-decks, and where, in many cases, owing to construction and the many difficulties to be encountered from complicated arrangements, it is almost impossible to reach a fire in time to save the boat, this invention can be used and relied on as certain of safety in the most extreme cases, involving but a trifle of expense in comparison to the protection granted. This Fire Jacket is effective, serviceable and cheap, when the security afforded is taken into consideration. Where property is endangered from stoves, furnaces, overheated pipes and metallic flues, this invention is warranted to protect it.

Mr. Harris, who owns the patent and to whom all applications should be addressed, is a member of one of our oldest and most esteemed families, and in every respect worthy the confidence, business support and patronage of our readers. See card in another column.

Another Great Cure of Asthma.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of Asthma for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, if relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what it was to be free from the disease. I had to sit up in bed every night for weeks and weeks without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts I made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, I had to be set up with all night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 13th of October, 1866, having heard of Dr. Keyser's skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but, I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. Dr. Keyser examined me carefully and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that, with care I would get well. I persevered with his remedies for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and totally free from the Asthma and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and, if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother.)
GEORGIANA FISHER.

BIRMINGHAM, Dec. 9, 1867.

The cure of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks, their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma, every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

MARRIED:

COHEN—NAUMBURG—On Wednesday afternoon, January 22d, at three o'clock, by the Rev. L. Naumburg, JOSIAH COHEN, Esq., and Miss CARRIE NAUMBURG, daughter of the officiating clergyman, all of this city.

DIED:

JONES.—On Thursday morning, January 23d, 1868, at 10 minutes past 2 o'clock, SAMUEL B. JONES, son of Evan E. Jones, of South Pittsburgh, aged 19 years and 5 months.

Funeral from the residence of his father, to proceed to Mount Union Cemetery, Allegheny, at 2 o'clock THIS DAY. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

The deceased was a young man of sterling character, agreeable manners, correct deportment, and possessed qualities which endeared him to a large circle of friends, who, while deploring his demise, bow to the decree which has removed him from their midst, satisfied that he has been removed to a world where the cares and trials of this life are unknown. In the many relations which the deceased sustained in life, he was noted for the prompt and uniformly cheerful discharge of his duties. We have seldom met a young man whose uniform good temper and amiability secured for him the place which the deceased occupied in the affections of those who were intimate with Samuel B. Jones, to whose worth these lines are inscribed, in the hope that those of his friends to whom this may be the first announcement of his death will be reminded by it to prepare for the time when they, too, will be required to render their final account.

B. D. AND S.

HENDRIE.—At Sewickley, Wednesday evening, January 22d, at quarter to 8 o'clock, MAGGIE WATSON, only child of D. and Kate A. Hendrie, aged 2 years and 2 months.

LEE.—On Wednesday, January 22d, at the residence of her son-in-law, Wm. Wiley, at Hazelwood, Mrs. JANE LEE, aged 79 years.

The funeral will take place on SATURDAY, the 25th inst., at 11 o'clock A. The friends of the family are invited to attend.

McKNIGHT.—On Thursday morning, January 23d, at quarter past nine o'clock, CARRIE E., youngest daughter of John and Jane Mcknight, aged 7 years, 1 months and 23 days.

The funeral will take place from the residence of her parents, No. 134 Webster street, Allegheny City, TO-DAY, at 2 o'clock P. M., to proceed to Allegheny Cemetery. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

MORAN.—On Wednesday evening, January 22d, at 9 o'clock, JAMES MORAN, aged 61 years.

Funeral THIS MORNING at 9 o'clock, from his late residence, No. 7 Union street.

TAYLOR.—On Wednesday afternoon, January 22d, 1868, at 4 o'clock, MINERVA IOWA, beloved little daughter of W. S. and Jennie C. Taylor, aged 2 years, 2 months and 9 days.

[Those we love most on earth are soonest taken from us. The blessed Saviour takes them to Himself. They are but links in a golden chain to draw us Heavenward.]

Funeral from the residence of her parents, Ohio avenue, Allegheny, late Manchester, on FRIDAY MORNING at 10 o'clock. The friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

FRIDAY, JAN. 24, 1868.

DURING the Southern Rebellion the aristocracy of Great Britain were hostile to our national government, and gave aid and comfort to the Confederates. The wrath of our loyalists waxed hot against them. If British citizens who made a public parade of being in the Southern conspiracy, and of furnishing arms and munitions thereto, had ventured into New York or Philadelphia while the struggle lasted, and with the avowed purpose of proceeding to South Carolina, it is more than probable they would have been arrested. At least, we should have said our District Commandants were grossly remiss if such men were not taken into custody.

"THE SANCTITY OF THE JUDICIARY," and other phrases of similar import, are confessedly rhetorical, but they do not impose on the judgment of men of sense and experience. Notoriously the Courts are just as partizan as the newspapers. Chief Justice Taney, and the Supreme Court of the United States with him, when the Slave Power demanded, did not hesitate to declare that black men had no rights that white men were bound to respect. Judge Gibson, and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania with him, made no scruple in affirming that a freeman was not a freeman if his color happened to be black. Instances to like effect can be cited without end. Whenever a political question is up for decision it can almost invariably be told beforehand what the judgment will be, by ascertaining the party affiliations of the Judges. About the only exceptions occur during political reactions, when one or more of the majority Judges, under the influence of panic, go over to the minority, as was the case in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania last year, upon the case involving the rights of blacks to ride in street cars.

A POMPOUS LIBELLER.

The National Quarterly Review claims to stand at the head of periodical literature in this country—to represent the largest degree of culture—to rise above all sordid and grovelling passions and prejudices, and to estimate men and affairs with judicial impartiality. How far it makes good its pretensions may be judged as accurately from a paragraph, in the December number, taken from an article on the "Ruinous influence of paper money," as by stopping to collate hundreds of similar revelations scattered through its pages. Speaking of opposition to Secretary MCCULLOCH's recommendations looking to a resumption of Specie Payments, it says:

> "The Radicals oppose him because he is the Cabinet Minister of a President whom they think it their duty to abuse and threaten as if he was their coachman, and the Democrats because it was as a Republican that he came into office, and because, ergo, it is probable that he is a Republican still."

This recklessness in statement, and this imputation of low or bad motives where none is proven, is quite down to the level of the worst hacks of the news paper press.

It may be this writer in the Review knows no better kind of society than that in which coachmen or other servants are abused simply because they fill humble but useful positions. The disclosures he makes of himself indicate as much. Probably there is an upstart circle in Boston, as in other cities, where such demeanor is common, and passes as becoming in gentlemen. It is none the less shameful for that; and in no way could this writer have betrayed his lack of proper breeding more absolutely than in the way he uses this comparison.

Nor is it true that any Democrat is hostile to Mr. MCCULLOCH because he was appointed as a Republican, and is likely to remain one to the end. As we understand his case, he never was a Republican, and never gave out that he was. Always a Democrat, his special knowledge of Finance commended him to the President, and his nomination was promptly confirmed by a Republican Senate.

Equally false is the allegation that the Radicals as a body oppose the policy of Mr. MCCULLOCH because he sustains the President in other matters, or oppose it at all. So far as Mr. MCCULLOCH's policy is intrinsic, it tends to a restoration of Specie Payments. In that central idea, a good many Radicals—including a considerable proportion of the Radical newspapers—coincide with the Secretary. The GAZETTE is about as Radical as Republican papers are made, and it has constantly urged Resumption It is by no means alone.

Much diversity of opinion exists among business men everywhere as to the right path to pursue in the present monetary emergency. Even men whose daily pursuits have led them to make a special study of Finance, are as much loggerheads as to Resumption as men in other calling. Each distinguished financier has his scheme, and neither two agree. No larger measure of disagreement obtains among politicians. We do not see how it well could, even with the most obstinate intention to get apart. No larger divergence is apparent among politicians, nor is it conceivable that it could exist.

On the test questions, touching this matter, so far presented to Congress during the current session, it is true that most of the Republican members voted against the continued contraction of paper currency. The writer who asserts they did so in order to oppose the Secretary of the Treasury must fall into the category of knaves or of fools. Manifestly they did so in accordance with the feeling prevalent among the larger number of business men, as it was, perhaps, proper they should do, holding a representative position. But it is also true that the larger part of the Democratic members voted to sustain Contraction; that is, voted to sustain the general policy of the Secretary, our reviewer to the contrary notwithstanding. In this the Democrats clearly followed the Hard Money traditions of their party, which were of a later crop.

It would be idle to deny that thoughts of party advantage enter into the discussions and manoeuverings relative to the management of the finances. The country is on the eve of a Presidential election. Experience goes to show that a monetary revulsion, happening at such a conjuncture, is pretty sure to defeat the party that chances to be in the ascendency. This fact may not be creditable to the discernment and intelligence of the masses; but so it is. Consequently, the Republicans are specially solicitous to tide over the presidential election without commercial disaster; while the Democrats, if a break up must come, prefer its coming when it will be of political help to them. There is nothing marvellous in this state of feeling, or that calls for censure. Most men, except in rare crises, feel that they have interests as citizens which far transcend in value and durability any interests they have simply as politicians.

Awhile ago men were frightened at the prospect of a collapse of prices, which they supposed to be contingent on a return to specie. They thought that to stop the contraction would prevent the fall in market values, and that this ambiguous position, midway between earth and heaven, or coin and paper, might be protracted indefinitely. But, prices have gone down, in some lines of goods as far as they can easily be crowded. The labor market is settling away to correspond. It could not do otherwise. A few weeks ago Gen. GRANT recommended Congress to increase materially the wages of clerks in the War Department. Before his recommendation could be acted on, he saw reasons, in the rapidly changing condition of affairs, to withdraw it. Then the Navy Department reduced wages thirty per cent. in all the yards and arsenals. These are significant facts. But when a mass meeting at Indianapolis refused to pass resolutions against contraction, that was a still more pregnant circumstance. This only shows that the laws controling finance are as absolute as any other laws, and will vindicate themselves no matter who may oppose.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

HISTORY OF THE UNITED NETHERLANDS: From the death of William the Silent to the Twelve years' Truce—1609. By John Lothrop Motley, D.C.L., Corresponding Member of the Institute of France; author of the "Rise of the Dutch Republic." In four volumes—vol. III, 1590—1600. With portraits. Harper & Brothers, publishers, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, 71 and 73 Fifth street.

Dr. Motley acquired a wide reputation as a writer, in his work on the "Rise of the Dutch Republic," which elevated him at once among the best of living historians, and he was accorded a high position in the literary world. The History of the Netherlands is one of the grandest productions of the age. As each volume of the history has been issued the interest has increased. The admirers of the great historian will hail the appearance of the third volume, and anticipate the luxury of soon reading the closing chapters of this fascinating work soon to appear in the fourth and last volume now in press.

The events connected with the history of the Netherlands show that it was the history of liberty. In this great struggle she was associated with other nations in sympathy with the great principles of political and religious freedom. The events lies between the contest of Charles the Fifth of Spain and Emperor of Germany; and the struggles by Philip the Second of Spain for the mastery, are presented with great vividness. The time chosen by Dr. Motley afforded him an inviting field for his powers of delineation. The fourth volume will complete this interesting historical work. Mr. Motley, however, announces that he is preparing a "History of the Thirty years' War," in which the Dutch Commonwealth and the Spanish Monarchy are blended, involving all the most important episodes in the progress of the Netherlands until the year 1648. There is a brilliancy and power in his style that fascinates and charms the reader. In the narration of historical facts, he has chosen, in language pure and flowing, episodes of the most charming character. The history is a model in style, as well as a truthful picture of the events so graphically described.

A JOURNEY IN BRAZIL. By Professor and Mrs. Louis Agassiz. Ticknor & Fields, Boston, Publishers. For sale by Davis, Clarke & Co., 93 Wood street.

Professor Agassiz is without a peer in some departments of science. His name is also a tower of strength, the result of his herculean labors and massive grasp of intellect. Brilliant as his researches and fame were in the old world, the product of his scientific researches of late years in this country far outstrip the former. Though well up in years, he still maintains the ardor and enthusiasm of youth. The "Journey in Brazil" was undertaken in 1865, with a view to correct some disturbance of his health, and enjoy rest from work. A life-long desire to visit Brazil preponderated over every other place of travel named, and so a trip to Brazil was determined. At this point, a generous friend, Nathaniel Thayer, to whom the work is so appropriately dedicated, proposed to the Professor to bear his expenses, personal and scientific, and also of six assistants. All obstacles being removed, the Professor and his accomplished wife and assistants, armed with all the needed help from government officials, started for Brazil. Once there, Emperor and subjects vied each other in contributing to the grand results of the expedition.

This volume of several hundred pages was rather the natural growth of circumstances than the result of any preconceived design. In connection with the scientific observations of the Professor, Mrs. Agassiz has woven in a charming manner together a thread of narrative, blending each in such beautiful harmony as if the product of one mind. No attempt is made to give an account of the scientific work accomplished, beyond the aims of the expedition, and how far they have been accomplished. Prof. Agassiz promises, in a work begun on Natural History, to give his investigations during the journey and those of his assistants. The country visited, the qualifications of the gifted observers, and the account of their thrilling adventures, presented in the most attractive form, and the elegant illustrations, combine to make this volume a rich contribution to science, as well as an attractive book of travel. We shall look forward with pleasure to the time when the complete work on the Natural History of Fishes is published. The book is elegantly printed and handsomely bound.

STORIES OF THE GORRILLA COUNTRY.—Narrated for young people. By Paul Du Chaillu, author of "Discoveries in Equatorial Africa," etc., etc. With numerous illustrations. New York: Harper & Brothers. Pittsburgh: Henry Miner.

This volume is a very readable one. The style, though simple, is fascinating, as well as affording instruction and entertainment. Du Chaillu gives his wonderful experience in an artless manner, and in just such language as will interest young people. Incredulous as many have been at the author's statements in regard to the Gorrilla, the fact appears clearly established of their existence. Their singular habits are also graphically described. His name must ever hold a prominent place in history, because of the discoveries he has made in regard to the Gorrilla. The work is written in such a simple form that even very young persons cannot fail to be entertained.

A SUGGESTIVE COMMENTARY ON ST. LUKE. With Critical and Homiletical Notes. By Rev. W. H. Van Doren. 2 vols. Published by D. Appleton & Company, New York. For sale by Henry Miner, 71 and 73 Fifth street.

This Commentary on St. Luke is unique in many respects, and differs very materially with any other works of this kind that we have seen. It proposes simply to be suggestive than otherwise. But it is something more—its critical notes are frequently full and comprehensive. It ought to be a popular work for home uses, and for the Bible class, and the Lecture Room. The fact that it is free from dogmatic views to a considerable extent, will doubtless increase its circulation among all denominations. In the copious notes appended, the author acknowledges the authorities, and also furnishes a full list of the authors and works consulted. In these days when the Sunday School cause is so prominent in the churches, this "Suggestive Commentary" will doubtless prove a great help to teachers and scholars. We commend the work to Bible students.

COUNT MIRABEAU. An Historical Novel. By Theodore Mundt, author of "Robespierre," "No Divorce," etc., etc. Translated from the German, by Therese J. Radford. Complete in one volume. With illustrations. New York: D. Appleton & Company. Pittsburgh: Henry Miner.

The author was the husband of Louisa Muhlbach, the brilliant writer of historical novels. He was one of that brilliant galaxy of authors, famous as "Young Germany" during the fifteen years previous to the revolution of 1848. This work is a graphic description of scenes in the eventful days of Mirabeau. The characters delineated were famous in those days, and occupy a prominent place in this romance. Mirabeau, the central character, around which all the others are grouped, was a man of wonderful genius and powers of intellect, who impressed society in all of its ramifications.

OLIVER OPTIC'S MAGAZINE. OUR BOYS AND GIRLS. 1867. Oliver Optic, editor. Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston.

Pittock sends us this elegantly bound volume for 1867, of this dainty weekly. Like Peter Parley, the editor, Oliver Optic, has become a household word, and is a great favorite with the "young folk." Here we have mirrored all sorts of useful, entertaining and instructive matter, just such as will please boys and girls. Its pages are also brimful of rich illustrations. The magazine has always been a favorite, and from the announcement of the publishers, we expect this year it will far excel any former year. Terms only $2,50 per year.

THE ÆNEID OF VIRGIL. With Explanatory Notes, by Thomas Chase, A. M., Professor in Haverford College. Published by Eldredge & Brother, Philadelphia.

This forms the second volume of the "Chase and Stuart's Classical Series." Cæsar's Commentaries have already been issued. Cicero's Orations, and Horace and Sallust, will follow Virgil. Besides the full Explanatory Notes, there is a Metrical Index, Remarks on Classical Versification, Index of Proper Names, &c. The Notes are made more valuable because of the references to standard Latin Grammars, in which fuller information may be found. The publishers are warranted in their claim, as to the purity of the texts of this series and adaptation of the Notes to the wants of students. The type and paper are exceedingly fine, and the binding is both elegant and substantial.

LEGENDS OF THE WARS IN IRELAND. By Robert Dwyer Joyce, M. D. Published by James Campbell, Boston. For sale by Davis, Clarke & Company, No. 93 Wood street.

These legends coming down through the medium of oral traditions, carry with them a certain air of improbability and untruth. Circumstantial narratives however founded on certain facts, though unsupported by historical testimony, in many instances, might prove history without fiction. Whether these legends are mere fictions, or feebly supported by historical facts, there is embodied in this volume a rich store of humor and incident, and cannot fail to amuse and interest the reader. Many of these legends are quite familiar, and will bear reading.

GUILD COURT. A London story. By George MacDonald. New York: Harper and Brothers. Pittsburgh: Henry Miner.

The simple announcement of a work by the author of "Annals of a Quiet Neighborhood," is sufficient to assure readers that "Guild Court" is worth reading. This is 304 of Harper's Library of Select Novels.

THE AMERICAN COLONY IN PARIS. Loring, Publisher, Boston.

Miner sends us this bit of racy reading. It is full of bon mots.

THE AMERICAN SABBATH. A sermon by Rev Robert Patterson, D. D., of Chicago, Ill. Published by the Presbyterian Board of Publication.

A Singular Dinner Party.

A writer in Blackwood describes a dinner party in Belgrade:

"I mustered enough of the 'mysterious gutturals' to say something civil and complimentary about the place, the dinner and the company, which the prince acknowledged politely, saying, 'I believe you are the first Englishman who has ever set foot here. Your countrymen, I fancy, are too haughty to like to mix with indiscriminate company, and though the rule may be a safe one, they lose something by their reserve. The people who sit about you now in this room comprise every class and condition of life. That large man with the cicatrix on his cheek is Prince Carl Dolgouroki, and the man opposite to him, in green velvet and gold, was his valet once. He is now the Greek Minister of Police. Yonder is a Mexican General, who is now in command of a troop of banditti in Patras; they are in Russian pay, and are meant for service in Thessaly. He with the spectacles is the correspondent of the Allgemeine Zeitung, and the tall quaint fellow on his left in Hunyadi, who is under sentence of death in Austria; and the dark handsome man, next but one to him, is Seristarchi, a man ruined by high play, and compromised in that affair of Orsini's.' 'Who is that noble looking fellow near the stove—he with the white attila over the scarlet jacket?' 'That's the headsman of the Valattica of Montenegro. It's a bold thing for him to sit down in a company, many of whose sons and brothers have fallen under his sword. He's the vainest dog in Europe, and fancies the Queen of Greece is in love with him.' 'And what do they all do here? What's their object in meeting thus?' 'What the Bourse is to the moneyed folks this room is to the secret police of Eastern Europe, and those countries which depend for their existence on the Turkish Empire. They play at espionage as men gamble at Homburg; each knows what his neighbor is after, and does his best to outwit him, now by bribing higher, now by sheer knavery, now by something a little more energetic than either,' and he drew his finger significantly across his throat, and smiled as he spoke."

Iron.

It is well known that, under the influence of the hammer and of constant use, the particles of iron gradually assume, by repeated vibration, a different texture from that they had when the piece was new. The metal becomes crystalline, losses its tenacity, and gets brittle. The sudden breaking of old iron axle-trees on railways is exclusively owing to this cause. Now it would be of the utmost importance to find some means of ascertaining whether or not this alteration in the texture has taken place, but up to this time every attempt in this direction has been a failure. We now learn that the problem has been solved by Mr. Sarboy, an Englishman, who has thought of employing the magnetic needle for this purpose. It appears that when an iron bar is homogeneous, the needle will not be suddenly displaced from its position on being slowly moved to and fro in a direction perpendicular to the magnetic meridian of the locality; but if there be in the bar any unsound place, a fault or flaw, the oscillations of the needle will become very intense as it passes over these defective points.

Dr. Sargent's Diuretic Pills

Are very properly called

"BACK-ACHE PILLS,"

Because whenever the Kidneys, Bladder, etc., are affected, the pain is always felt in the small of the back, sometimes extending along the groin, which symptoms are often mistaken for Rheumatism, and the ordinary remedies for Rheumatic affections such as Plasters, Liniments, &c., are of no avail.

DR. SARGENT'S BACK-ACHE PILLS

Strike at the root of such diseases, by removing the inflammation and stimulating the organs to a healthy action. The patient is relieved from all weakness and pain. Hundreds who have suffered from these troubles can testify to the wonderful efficacy of these pills.

Sold by all Druggists.

Sugar coated, price 50 cents per box.

Debility and Emaciation

Both result from the lack of ability to convert the food into nutriment. How necessary, then, for those suffering from these alarming symptoms to immediately resort to a remedy that will strengthen the stomach and digestive organs. For, as soon as this desirable object has been accomplished, the health improves, and the patient resumes his usual personal appearance. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have attained a world-wide popularity in such cases, and have been proven the best and safest means of removing constipation, toning the stomach, giving energy to the liver, and relieving every symptom of nervousness and depression of spirits. Its cheering and beneficial effects are highly spoken of by thousands, who owe to it their restoration to health. No restorative in the annals of medicine has attained the same popularity in the short space of time it has been before the public, or has won the high endorsements accorded to this excellent tonic. Many other preparations, purporting to be correctives and restoratives, have been introduced and have perished one by one, while the popularity of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS continues to increase, and is now recognized as a standard household medicine. The success which attends the use of the Bitters evinces at once its virtues in all cases of debility and diseases of the stomach. Certificates, almost without number, have been published, attesting its truly miraculous power in removing those painful and fearful diseases. And at this time it seems idle to do more than call attention to the great remedy of the age, in order to awaken public attention to its excellence. It is the only preparation of the kind that is reliable in all cases and it is therefore worthy of the consideration of the afflicted.

Twelve Dictates of Common Sense.

First—If you are out late at night, and return chilly and hoarse, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Second—If you should break through the ice when skating, and thereby contract a cold, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Third—If you have been coughing for a long time, and don't know how to get cured, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Fourth—If your breast pains you, and you hawk up more phlegm than usual, take Dr Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Fifth—If out sleighing and get upset and catch cold, remove the obstructions at once, by Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Sixth—If you expectorate blood, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Seventh—If you have wheezing and bronchial irritation, take Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup.

Eighth—If you have running at the nose, Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup will cure you.

Ninth—If you have influenza, Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup will cure you.

Tenth—If you have any incipient disease of the pulmonary organs, Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup will cure you.

Eleventh—Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup has cured thousands of just such cases.

Twelfth—Dr. Keyser's Pectoral syrup can be had at most druggists, and at the proprietor's, No. 140 Wood street.

1786. PROSPECTUS. 1868

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the 82nd year of its existence with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in the important Presidential Canvass of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to prove one of the most important held since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be anxiously watched by the intelligent masses. In view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the proprietors of the GAZETTE have made arrangements for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a highly intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and House, the heads of the various Departments, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the first, fullest and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

The proceedings of the State Legislature, at its forthcoming session, will also prove interesting, inasmuch as many questions of importance will come up for legislation. The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capital, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports, which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful specialty to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

TERMS OF THE DAILY GAZETTE.

|---|---|
| Three Months | $2.00. |
| Six Months | 4.00. |
| One Year | 8.00. |

Delivered in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and all the adjacent Boroughs for 15 cents per week, payable to Carriers.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

TERMS FOR THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

| | |
|---|---|
| Single Subscriber | $1.50. |
| Clubs of Five | 1.25. |
| Clubs of Ten | 1.15. |

J. B. HARRIS'
SAFETY FIRE JACKET,
For Smoke and Hot Air Flues.
HAVING OBTAINED OF THE UNITED STATES letters patent for a SAFETY JACKET, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position. It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stoves, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes used as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated, and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.

PROPOSALS FOR STATE PRINTING.
Agreeably to the provisions of an Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, entitled "An Act in relation to Public Printing," approved the ninth day of April, A. D. 1856 and the supplement thereto, approved 25th February, 1862, notice is hereby given that the Speaker of the Senate and House of Representatives of said Commonwealth will receive sealed proposals until twelve o'clock at noon of the Fourth Tuesday of February, 1868,
For doing the Public PRINTING AND BINDING, for the term of three years, from the first day of July next, at a certain rate per centum below the rates specified in said act relating to Public Printing and Binding, approved the ninth day of April, A. D. 1856, and according to the mode and manner and conditions specified in said act and the several supplements thereto.
Said proposals to specify the rate per centum on the whole of the rates of the said act taken together, and not a specification of the rate per centum below the rates on each item.
The following is the form of proposals for the State Printing and Binding:
I, ———— ————, propose to do all the State Printing and Binding in the manner and in all respects subject to the provisions of the Act of the ninth of April, A. D. 1856, and the several supplements thereto, for the period of three years, from the first day of July next, at the rate of ———— per centum below the rates specified in said act; and should the State Printing and Binding, as aforesaid, be allotted to me, I will be ready forthwith with bond, and approved sureties, as required by the act approved 25th February, 1862, for the faithful performance of the work so allotted," which said proposals shall be signed, and together with the bond required, shall be sealed up and endorsed "Proposals for Public Printing and Binding," and shall be directed to the said Speakers, and be delivered to one or both of them as aforesaid, to be opened, announced and allotment made on the 26th day of January, 1868, agreeably to the provisions of the said act of ninth of April, 1856, and the several supplements thereto.

PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST IN GOLD COIN.
THE BEST INVESTMENT
For Surplus Capital.
The attention of Investors, Trustees, Executors, and others desiring an unusually safe, reliable and profitable form of permanent investment, is called to the advantages and assurances of the Central Pacific Railroad
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.
The CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY offer for sale their FIRST MORTGAGE THIRTY YEAR SIX PER CENT. GOLD BONDS and submit to Investors the following, among other obvious considerations, and invite the comparison with the merits and excellences of any class of corporate securities:
I. These bonds are based upon the most vital and valuable part of the Grand National Pacific Railroad, soon to become the main channel of communication on the continent.
II. The local settlement, and the business therefrom, is remarkably large and profitable, and most constantly increase.
III. The hardest part of the road is now built, and the remainder will be rapidly carried forward over the Salt Lake Plains.
IV. The greater part of the means necessary to build the road is provided by the U. S. Government upon a subordinate lien.
V. The State and chief cities of California have contributed upward of $3,000,000 to the enterprise, without lien.
VI. The grant of land is destined at an early day to prove of far greater market value than the total of the First Mortgage Bonds issued upon the road and equipments.
VII. This road lies altogether along the gold and silver producing regions, and its revenues are received in coin.
VIII. The management of this Company has been distinguished for prudence and economy; and the surplus earnings, after payment of expenses and interest, are devoted to construction purposes.
IX. The interest liabilities of the Company upon the portion now in operation are less than a third the net earnings.
X. Both principal and interest are payable in GOLD, under special provisions of both National and State enactment.
These Bonds are in sums of $1,000 each, with semi-annual gold coupons attached, payable in January and July, and are offered for sale at 95 per cent. of their par value, and accrued interest from January 1st added, in currency.
At this time they yield nearly
Nine per cent. upon the Investment.
These Bonds bid fair to attain the most prominent position among the non-speculative investments of the country, and will be actively dealt in at the money centers in Europe.
Holders of Government Securities have an opportunity of exchanging them for Central Pacific Bonds, bearing an equal rate of interest, with the principal abundantly secured, and of realizing a profit of ten to fifteen per cent. in addition.
Orders sent with the funds through responsible Banks or Express Companies will receive prompt attention. Bonds sent by return Express, to any address in the United States, at our cost. Information, Descriptive Pamphlets, Maps, &c., furnished on application at the office of the Railroad Company,

THREAD AND SONG.

BY J. W. PALMER.

Sweeter and sweeter,
Soft and low,
Neat little nymph,
Thy numbers flow.
Urging thy thimble,
Thrift's tidy symbol,
Busy and nimble,
To and fro;
Prettily plying,
Thread and Song.
Keeping them flying
Late and long,
Though the stitch linger,
Kissing thy finger,
Quick,—as it skips along.

Many an echo,
Soft and low,
Follows thy flying
Fancy so—
Melodies thrilling,
Tenderly filling
Thee with their trilling,
Come and go;
Memory's finger,
Quick as thine,
Loving to linger
On the line,
Writes of another,
Dearer than brother;
Would that the name were mine

—Hon. Henry Wilson has a book on "Reconstruction" in press.

—Mr. Anthony Trollope has been lecturing on political subjects.

—Chicago is to have a wigwam for the Republican Convention.

—A national monument to Lord Palmerston has been commenced.

—The Fond du Lac skating Rink is greatly troubled with musk rats.

—Lawrence Barrett and Emily Melville are going to hitch together.

—The Savannahese are deep in the mysteries of shad fishing once more.

—Milwaukee has a gymnasium. It is very neat and complete and admits ladies.

—Mr. Alfred Tennyson received $525 in gold for his poem on "A Spiteful Letter."

—The article in the February Putnam on Fitz Greene Halleck is by Edward Duyckinck.

—The Bishop of London is said to be one hundred years old and to read without glasses.

—The Finnish famine has finished so many Finlanders that the rest talk of emigrating.

—The North Carolina Convention has made it a penal offence to call a colored man a negro.

—Ottowa, Kansas, is having a hotel built which is 125 feet by 125 feet, and three stories high.

—Mrs. Lander is playing Elizabeth in St. Louis to what the Republican calls brilliant gatherings.

—$5,000 were collected at Grace Church, Brooklyn, last Sunday night, for the Western Missions.

—Apples are healthy, says an exchange. We are very glad to hear it. How are the little apples?

General Carl Schurz missed an ovation in Bremen, recently, by leaving on an early train for Wiesbaden.

—New York is one hundred years older than St. Petersburg, and the latter is the handsomer of the two.

—An old lady in Kansas has such a horror of Trichina that she has forbidden her daughter to read Bacon.

—A man was arrested in East St. Louis for setting fire to his own house, on which there was no insurance.

—Highway robberies are common in the heart of Memphis, and the Avalanche comes down on the authorities therefor.

—Secretary Seward said that he had half a mind to have Charles Dickens arrested in retaliation for the Train affair.

—The London Court Journal growls and grunts over the prospects for the year 1868, but offers no remedial suggestions.

—Mrs. Stowe has written a book called "Men of Our Times," in which she talks about various warriors, statesmen and preachers.

—Somebody says that Thad. Stevens is only living on in hopes that Parton will die, and so be unable to write his biography.

—A Frenchman considers the whale an anti-diluvian sardine. The anti-diluvian ladies, we suppose, took whale bone internally.

—Smythe, the notorious New York preacher, has been offered a handsome sum of money by Wheatly, to preach down the ballet.

—Now that Mr. Hale has resigned the Spanish Mission, all of the applicants for the Mexican one are transferring themselves.

—There are snobs enough in America yet it seems, for Mrs. Ellet's "Queens of American Society" has reached already its fourth edition.

—The East Tennessee marble quarries are again to be worked, and the beautifull Tennessee marble will again be an attainable luxury.

—Sylvanus Cobb still writes for the Ledger, and C. H. Webb writes for Harper's. A spider has probably been around in New York.

—Alaska has nineteen volcanoes and St. Thomas innumerable earthquakes. We hope the former are not as epidemic as the latter have been.

—An exchange tells young ladies who want to get married not to take their mothers with them to carry the bundles when they go shopping.

—They do queer things in Cheyenne. A man was arrested there for roasting his step-children, although he did not eat them when well done.

—The Marquis de Caux, who is to marry Patti, is said to be the handsomest man in France, and the leader of all the Court German cotillions.

—The Northern Monthly, which made the hit of the season with its article on Dickens, is going to try and make another with "Ritualism in New York."

—A man in Illinois last week threw a bucket full of buckwheat batter at his wife, but hit and plastered another woman, who has sued him for battery.

—Belle Boyd having failed in the legitimate drama, is going to take to the leg without a mate drama, like Menken. She has begun by leaving a few husbands.

—An index to the London Times for 1867, is soon to be issued. A more mixed muddle of all sorts of political opinions and falsified prophecies it would be hard to imagine.

—The National Intelligencer says that "The United States are to dangle at the point of a single sword." A catastrophe almost to be wished for, if the Intelligencer is to dangle too.

—A Southern paper announces that a freed women was frozen to death at Columbus, Ga., last week. Exactly as if she would not have been so unfortunate if still blessed with slavery.

—The New York News says that the White Fawn is very poor, and advises people not to go and see it. Ben Wood happened to be forgotten in the distribution of managerial favors, hence his objection.

—Two men were attacked by a wild cat in Wisconsin, last week, and were so desperately beset that nothing but an opportune axe saved them from the beast's claws, which were anything rather than saving clause.

—The Pope wants females to come oftener to church, and to wear long dresses. He also says that when they do come to church they should wear veils which must not be worn as ornaments.

—The English Independent wishes that Yankee colleges would keep their degrees at home, as they only render those Englishmen on whom they are conferred ridiculous, and bring learning into contempt.

MEDICAL.

A GREAT

CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, if relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what was to be free from the disease. I had to sit in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt life a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 13th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband, Joseph Meyers, but I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. Dr. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am to-day in vigorous health, and TOTALLY FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.

NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.

Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The case of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

SIGHT RESTORED.

The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, SIMON P. FISHER, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.

We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health, and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.

Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 16 Sampson street, Allegheny City:

I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of Consumption, and having heard of cures made by DR. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and so bad had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.

GEORGE FORD.

PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1867.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.

STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1864, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, of 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.

Attest: E. DILWORTH,
Clerk of Common Council. 1a22;

A SUPPLEMENT TO AN ORDINANCE passed the 4th day of November, A. D. 1867, entitled "An Ordinance relative to the Laying of Gas Pipe."

SECTION 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the Burgess and Town Council of the Borough of Lawrenceville, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That no other Gas Company shall receive the privilege of introducing gas into said borough in competition with the Lawrenceville Gas Company: Provided, the said Lawrenceville Gas Company will furnish gas to the said borough, and the citizens thereof, at as low rates at all times as those now charged, or that may at any time hereafter be charged, by other companies similarly situate; and provided, further, That the said Lawrenceville Gas Company shall commence and prosecute operations within six months from the passage of this ordinance.

SECTION 2. That when any street, lane or alley of said borough shall be opened by the said Gas Company a distance not exceeding in length 400 feet for the purpose of laying down, relaying and repairing the pipes as aforesaid, the same shall not be kept open or obstructed for an unnecessary length of time, but shall be enclosed and repaired, and all rubbish and dirt occasioned by the opening of any street, lane or alley as aforesaid, shall be promptly and speedily removed by the said Gas Company, at its own proper costs and charges.

SECTION 3. In the opening of any street, lane or alley as aforesaid, the said Gas Company shall use all necessary precautions to protect the lives and property of the citizens from accident and damage. It shall erect or cause to be erected all necessary barricades to prevent all such accidents and damage, and shall not allow any part of its works or apparatus necessary for the preparation of gas to be so situate as to endanger the property of any citizen or become a public nuisance.

SECTION 4. That for any violation of the provisions of this ordinance the said Gas Company shall, upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of the county of Allegheny, forfeit and pay the sum of twenty-five dollars, and for every hour's continuation thereof after such conviction, the further sum of fifty dollars; provided, that the recovery of any such fine or fines shall not bar or in any manner interfere with the right of said borough, or any individual or individuals to maintain a civil action for any damages which they may have sustained by any violation of the provisions of this ordinance by the said Gas Company. dy:3

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having

HOT WATER BOILERS

attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stove-pipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any person having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK, BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

SABBATH SCHOOL INSTITUTE.

SECOND DAY—MORNING SESSION.

The Sabbath School Teachers' Institute, in connection with the Reformed and United Presbyterian Churches, reassembled in the Second U. P. Church, Sixth street, yesterday morning at half-past nine o'clock, and proceeded to devotional exercises under the direction of Rev. J. W. Sproull.

At the conclusion of the devotional exercises, the Business Committee made their report. The report, after a slight amendment, was adopted as follows:

Resolved, That the relations of the Sabbath School to the Church are such that her numerical strength and prosperity in our land largely depend upon it, and that as superintendents and teachers we will devote ourselves more earnestly to it in time to come.

Resolved, That to establish and vigorously support Mission Sabbath Schools, in destitute parts of the city or country, is one of the best means of evangelizing the masses, and that every self-sustaining congregation should give its influence and pecuniary support in this behalf.

Resolved, That in view of the fact that many trained in our Sabbath Schools do not only cease to attend its exercises, but neglect to enter the communion of the Church, superintendents and teachers should employ every proper means to induce their scholars to give their hearts to Christ and themselves to the work of the Church.

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this Institute that no Sabbath School can be efficiently conducted without holding teachers' meetings at least monthly, and where the teachers are not characterized by a spirit of cheerfulness and prayer in their work.

Resolved, That we regard with great apprehension the neglect to study the shorter catechism in the family and the Sabbath School, and the introduction of books into the Sabbath School Libraries which are not strictly religious.

Resolved, That we hail with pleasure the increased interest now taken in the Sabbath School work by the Reformed and United Presbyterian Churches, and that we pledge ourselves to renewed energy and zeal in this glorious work.

Resolved, That as much of the efficiency and pleasure of the Sabbath School depends on good singing, the education of the children in music should be made a specialty, and we recommend that singing classes be formed in connection with all our Sabbath Schools, where they can be conducted with convenience and profit.

Resolved, That in our judgment Sabbath School Institutes are calculated to greatly promote the interests of the Sabbath School cause, and we therefore recommend that the Business Committee of this Institute be authorized to call another Sabbath School Institute, to meet in the Second U. P. Church, Allegheny, on the second Tuesday of July next, at ten o'clock A. M.

This report was signed by Rev. J. B. Clark, D. D., and Thos. H. Rabe, Esq.

Rev. W. J. Reid then spoke on the importance of "Sermons and Addresses to Sabbath School Children." The children, he said, need special sermons, for it is evident, on going through the Sabbath schools, that children have much of the Old Adam in their hearts. By the foolishness of preaching they are to be brought to a knowledge of the truth as it is in Jesus Christ. Special encouragement is given to preach to children, because their minds are well adapted to receive it. Their hearts have not grown callous under the influence of the world. Special promises are given that blessings shall rest on the young. The command of God is to preach the Gospel to "every creature." Every minister of Christ is able to preach these sermons to children. But it requires special preparation to enable them to do it.

Rev. John Douglas, D. D., then delivered an address on "Sabbath School Literature, Distribution of Library, &c." Dr. Douglas said the great demand of the age was for something to read. Although the steam printing press is multiplying books by the hour, still the cry is for more books. Infidelity has taken the lead in the matter of publications. There is a so-called literature that is being scattered over the land as thickly as the leaves of autumn, which only inflames the passions and ministers to the excitement of the carnal propensities. The corrupt influences of these publications should be counteracted by a sound and healthy Sabbath School literature. Consideration should be had to the material to be operated upon—the young, and also to the object of the Sabbath School—namely, to bring children to God. Dryden said, "Books are spectacles through which to read nature." Books in a sabbath school library should be spectacles that would enable the children to "decipher and syllable" the sublime mysteries of the Bible. There should be books on doctrine, christian duty, experimental religion and devotion. Works of fiction, such as are now used should be to a great extent cast out of the library. But parable, allegory and narrative may be used with great efficiency. As to periodicals, he could cordially recommend the "Youth's Evangelist," published by Mr. Ferguson, of Philadelphia, for the use of children. The Sunday School Times has greatly improved, and was an excellent aid to teachers.

Major William Frew spoke on the following topic: "The Older Scholars; How to Retain Them in the Sabbath School." Mr. Frew considered the retention of older scholars the most important feature of Sabbath School instruction, and present the following points, enforcing them with much earnestness: 1st. The school is not simply an institution for little children. It is adapted to all ages and attainments. He illustrated his point by the schools of Mr. Beecher and Mr. Spurgeon. Let a grandfather and grandmother class be established in every school. 2d. Engage an able teacher, the pastor if possible, and the congregation had better reduce his other labors rather than neglect this. 3d. Establish a Christian Association in every congregation, with which, if possible, every young man and woman is to be connected. Give each one something to do. 4th. Have an occasional sociable in the congregation, with a view to develop pleasant social influence. 5th. Let the teachers of Bible classes make careful preparation, have a reputation for learning—a pleasing manner of address and an earnest enthusiasm.

The topics discussed above were then thrown open to public debate. Mr. Reid and Dr. Douglas had many questions addressed to them on the subjects of their remarks. Then opened the ever interesting "Question Drawer." Short addresses were made and questions propounded by Dr. Brown, Major Frew, Thomas Johnston, Dr. Douglas, Rev. A. M. Milligan, Mr. John Montgomery, Mr. Knox, Mr. Bracken, Mr. Reid, Mr. Boyd Mr. Hanna, and others.

The Institute then adjourned to the afternoon at half-past two o'clock, Rev. Dr. Douglas pronouncing the benediction.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Institute met in the afternoon at half-past two o'clock, and proceeded with the usual devotional exercises under the direction of Mr. E. Dunseath. The subject for prayer was "The Baptised Youth of the Church."

Rev. J. S. Hawk, of East Liberty, then addressed the Assembly on the "Opening Exercises of the Sabbath School." He considered the opening exercises of as much importance as any other. No success can attend the exercise of the Sabbath School unless the influence of the Holy Spirit shall have been secured in answer to prayer. There should be a fixed time to open the Sabbath School, and it should be opened at the time. The Psalm should be sung to a familiar tune. The prayer should be short and appropriate.

In the absence of Rev. A. H. Elder who was appointed, Mr. T. Bracken, student of Theology, opened the discussion of the topic, "Modes of Sabbath School teaching: Illustrative Teaching." He believed prepared notes (notes found in books) should only be used as helps in preparing the lesson, not in teaching. The interrogative mode of teaching is excellent. The lecturing system is not good, when it is overdone. The illustrative method—teaching by objects—is a good one. The Holy Spirit adopted this method. Christ adopted it in his parabolic system of teaching. A stone, flower, leaf, or almost any natural object may be used. Every illustration should be brief—independent in itself, not requiring another illustration to develop its meaning. The illustration should be familiar.

Object and blackboard teaching was then discussed by Professor I. A. Macrum. He presented pictures representing the good Samaritan, prodigal son, Paul at Melita, and then gave good specimens of oral teaching to accompany the pictures. He then gave specimens of blackboard teaching.

The above topics were then discussed by the Institute. Rev. S. B. Reed thought it was of the greatest importance to open the Sabbath School just at the time appointed; it would secure punctuality. A pastor once resolved he would not leave his study to go to church so long as he could see one individual in the long lane in which his church was situated. The consequence was that the morning service did not commence till two o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. John S. Sands thought the reading of the Scriptures should not be omitted in the opening of the Sabbath School. He thought Superintendents should make "children's prayers," and make them short.

Major William Frew thought the doors of the Sabbath School should be closed during the opening exercises. Indeed, he thought pastors should do the same in their churches, for during the opening exercises a great number enter the church seemingly determined to make as much noise as possible.

Mr. T. F. Wakeham thought the Superintendent should read with the children as well as pray with them. He thought there should be more singing in the school. At least three psalms should be sung during each session.

Rev. A. Calhoun was convinced it was of the greatest importance that prayers should be appropriate and brief. The children should be made to fold their hands and stand in a praying attitude during the opening exercises.

Mr. McMasters thought the plan of shutting the doors would not suit well this cold weather unless each congregation was provided with an ante-room.

Dr. Brown said there was danger in falling into either extreme. There should be neither too much extravagance on the one hand, nor too much simplicity on the other.

Proceed to read questions from the "drawer." "Should none but professors of religion teach in the Sabbath School?" Answered appropriately and negatived by different persons, and discussed at considerable length.

Rev. Jos. R. Kerr then taught a model lesson in the Bible to a class of ten or eleven young ladies and gentlemen, founded on the 23d Psalm.

EVENING SESSION.

Met at half past seven o'clock and spent twenty minutes in devotional exercises; under the conduct of Rev. D. Barclay.

Mr. John S. Sands then delivered an address on Teachers' meetings, Institutes, &c. Teachers' meetings should be held once a week, for prayer. If the meetings would be made profitable the ladies should all come—come prepared, and come with their hearts in the work. These meetings secure concentrated effort, and the development of undeveloped resources. They awaken the latent talent of the locality in which they are held.

On motion, the resolution recommending the holding of another Institute in July next was reconsidered, and it was resolved to hold the next Institute in January, 1869, the time to be fixed by the Business Committee.

It was moved that steps be taken to hold a State Convention. The motion was lost.

The "Question Drawer" was opened again. "How often should a teacher be indulged in tardiness or absence before another is appointed?" In some schools, it was stated, a teacher was discharged if absent three times in succession, without sufficient excuse.

"How can congregations be brought to support and visit the Sabbath School?" They should place the Sabbath School on the same list with other benevolent associations, and provide accommodations for visitors.

Rev. C. A. Dickey delivered an address to "teachers." What ought a Sabbath School teacher do above all things, and without which he can do nothing? He ought to prepare. Congregations would soon languish and fade away if ministers did not give themselves to study. It is important that teachers should do the same. The Sabbath School is not opposed to the Church, it is the Church. It does not infringe upon the Church. The Sabbath School of to-day will be the Church of fifteen years hence. The work of the teacher is a hard and responsible work, and, therefore, requires the most careful preparation.

A vote of thanks was passed the officers of the Institute for their efficient services, and the Trustees of the Church for the use of their edifice.

Dr. Brown returned thanks for the resolution.

A vote of thanks was also passed to the Committee of arrangements, and the gentleman who had defrayed, out of his own private purse, the entire expenses of the Institute.

Rev. T. H. Hanna led in prayer, and, after singing the 133d Psalm, the Institute was adjourned, finally, by the President, Dr. Brown, pronouncing the benediction.

In bringing our report of the Institute to a close we may take occasion to say that it was by far the most successful assembly of the kind, of a local character, that has ever met in this neighborhood. No other that we have seen would compare with it in number. Notwithstanding the almost impassable condition of the streets, the house was filled again last night to overflowing. The speeches throughout gave evidence of careful thought, and were delivered in the most impressive manner.

We may mention, although he is opposed to having his name made public, that the gentleman referred to above as having defrayed the entire expenses of the Institute, is that noble, liberal and earnest Christian worker, Thomas H. Rabe, Esq., who is devoting his time and wealth to the cause of Sabbath School instruction.

THE COURTS.

District Court—Judge Hampton.

The Armstrong county ejectment cases have progressed to the close of the evidence, and a partial summing up to the jury. The conclusion will likely be reached today.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Stowe.

Court met at ten o'clock Thursday and proceeded with the

ARSON CASE.

Com'th vs. Michael Scahill and John Hughes, indictment setting fire to and causing the destruction of Wallace's Foundry Works in the Tenth ward, on the morning of Christmas last. The main feature in the case, indicating the guilt of the defendants, was the tracing to their possession of a box of draughting instruments which had evidently been taken from a desk in the foundry shortly before the fire. What other evidence was offered was entirely circumstantial. The defendants were seen in the vicinity (within a square) of the foundry shortly before the fire broke out, and were at the fire among the first after its discovery. The case was not concluded at adjournment.

Common Pleas—Judge Mellon.

THURSDAY, Jan. 23.—In the case of George M. Tenan vs. Isaac Charles, reported on Tuesday, the plaintiff took a non-suit. The verdict agreed upon by the jury was therefore not received, the plaintiff's counsel having moved for the non-suit before the jury appeared to render their verdict.

W. G. Johnson & Co., vs. Schulz, Danner & Co. Action to recover $462,50, amount of bill rendered for printing bill heads, &c. Verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for full amount claimed.

In the case of Jane Stewart vs. John Stewart, proceedings in divorce, (decree granted on verdict of a jury,) an attachment was granted againts respondent for non-payment of costs in accordance with the order of Court.

James S. Porter vs. the Coal Bluff Mining Company. Action to recover $219,01, with interest from May 5th, 1865, the same being, as claimed, for money overpaid on a bill of coal purchased by plaintiff from defendant. Verdict for $255,77.

Patrick Hanley vs. Michael Rafferty. Action for damages. It was alleged that the plaintiff's child, about eighteen months old, was seriously injured through the carelessness of the defendant in unhitching his horse from a cart on Hill street, in the Eighth ward, causing the horse to take fright before entirely unhitched and run over and trample on the child. On trial.

H. A. Collier was admitted as an attorney, on motion of Gen. F. H. Collier.

Following is the trial list for this day:

NOVEMBER LIST.

45. Ward vs. Longwell.
46. Hampton for use vs. McDonald.
47. Aiken et al. vs. Dunlevy's ex'rs.
49. Union Skating Co. vs. Kerwin et al.
2. Taylor vs. Sinclair.
11. Brown vs. Smith et ux.

DECEMBER LIST.

1. Barrington vs. Koch.
3. Lawson vs. Edmunds.
4. Brown vs. Logan.
5. King vs. Oliver et al.
6. Steiner vs. Simpson et al,
7. Richardson et al. vs. Roe.
8. Little vs. Mercer et. al.
9. Anderson vs. Smidth & Co.

Blast Furnaces.

Mention has been made in some of the papers of improvement in blasts for furnaces, and of the unusually large production of several in this city. If we are not mistaken these results have all been surpassed by the production reported of the "Westerman Iron Furnace" at Sharon, which for the week ending the 19th inst., was, of Furnace No. 1—223 tons and 875 pounds, and of Furnace No. 2—418 tons. Total, 441 tons and 875 pounds gross of grey metal. These furnaces are only twelve feet bosh and forty-eight feet high, use stone coal exclusively, and are blown by an engine built at the celebrated Washington Works of Robinson, Rea & Co. of this city. If they do effect larger productions elsewhere, we are glad to note that the engine by which the fete was accomplished is of Pittsburgh manufacture.

A Female Bruiser.

Catherine Girt made information yesterday before Justice Heisel, against Mrs. Isaac Bigger, charging her with assault and battery. The defendant keeps a pawnbroker's shop in Birmingham, and the prosecutrix alleges that sometime since she took sick and was taken to hospital, and while there her husband, who it appears is a habitual drunkard, pawned his clothing and bed clothing to the defendant, and spent the money for whiskey. When she recovered and returned home, not a stitch of apparel or bed clothing was left in the house. She ascertained that they had been pawned with Mrs. Bigger, and she called upon that lady and demanded them, when, as she alleges, she was attacked and beaten. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Mrs. Bigger.

Caged at Last.

On or about the 22d of December last Anna Mullin made information before Alderman Taylor against Martha Brawdy, charging her with keeping a bawdy house. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of officer Bell, who, after several unsuccessful attempts, succeeded in capturing her on Wednesdry evening, in the cellar of her own house. She was taken before the Alderman, and after a hearing, held in two thousand dollars bail for her appearance at Court, in default of which she was committed to jail. After she was committed a bail piece was lodged against her, in a case of the same nature, whereon the Grand Jury have found a true bill.

The United States Court, Judge McCandless, will commence its next session on Monday.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The high favor in which the Florences are held in Pittsburgh is plainly indicated by the immense houses they draw and the highly respectable character of the audience. The Opera House was filled last night to see them in the thrilling and popular drama of "Ireland as it Was." The piece has been produced on the Pittsburgh stage frequently, but never before have we witnessed such a perfect rendition of it as that given last night. Mrs. Florence takes a benefit to-night, when an attractive bill will be presented. The entertainment will open with the "Irish Lion," with Mrs. F. as Tim Moore, which will be followed by "Thrice Married," in which the beneficiary will appear in four characters, and will conclude with the "Returned Volunteer," in which Mr. Florence takes the leading role. The matinee to-morrow afternoon will be a brilliant affair.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The grand, brilliant and imposing spectable, "Undine," at the Academy of Music, is increasing in popularity, a fact fully demonstrated by the vast concourse of people who throng the building nightly to witness it. The entertainment is without doubt the most brilliant and imposing ever witnessed in this city, and we regret that prior engagements compel the managers to put us off with so short a season. The impression that the exhibition is immoral, which appears to prevail to some extent, is an erroneous one, and we take pleasure in correcting it, as there is not the slightest indelicacy in ladies witnessing it. In Chicago, the audiences were composed of the elite of the city.

The Matinee to-morrow will afford an excellent opportunity for ladies to satisfy themselves of the truthfulness of our statement, and we feel confident that none who witness the grand spectacle will have the slightest cause to regret it. Only three more entertainments.

GRAND OPERA.—Those who contemplate attending the Grand Opera should remember that the sale of season tickets closes this evening, after which only single tickets will be sold. The sale so far has been unprecedentedly large, and it promises to be pecuniarily a grand success.

MASONIC HALL.—To all who wish to spend a pleasant evening, and enjoy a hearty laugh, we would say go to Masonic Hall, and hear Duprez and Benedict's world renowned minstrels. Their music, both vocal and instrumental, is all fresh and new, and arranged in an incomparable manner, while their witticisms are genuine and not of that stale dry kind characteristic of minstrel troupes.

Real Estate Transfers.

The following Deeds were left at the Recorder's Office, January 22, 1868:

John Dougherty to David Ray, June 16th, 1856; for a lot of ground on Turtle Creek, containing 16½ acres and 18 perches.......$450

John Ray to David Ray, Nov. 8th 1867; for a lot in McKeesport, 50 feet front on Ringold street, running back to Sixth street, 120 feet.......$800

Samuel B. Cluley, Sheriff, to George Chalfant, Jan. 4th 1868; for all the interest of John S. Smith to a lot of ground on the Freeport road, with buildings.......$1,050

Benjamin Patton to Francis Keyser, June 13th, 1865; for a lot in Hampton township, a part of lot No. 213 in "Deer Park," containing two acres......$150

Benjamin Patton to Michael Wagner, June 20th, 1865; for a lot in Hampton township, a part of Lot No. 213 in "Deer Park," containing nine and one-half acres.......$712 50

Sarah M. Philips to Patrick Keating, Nov. 1st, 1867, for lot in East Birmingham, 20 feet front on south side of Sarah street by 120 feet deep......$1,000

City of Allegheny to John Briner, Oct. 1st, 1867, for lot No. 8 in block No. 1, in plan of lots in Shaler township, laid out by Directors of the Poor for Allegheny city, 20 feet front on Evergreen Plank road, running back 130 feet to Mead alley.......$300

Samuel B. Cluley, Sheriff, to George K. Gamble, Dec. 21st, 1867, for all the interest of William Worts in lots No. 24 and 42, in Warden and Alexander's plan of lots in Temperanceville.. $150

Robert Andrews to James Hemphill, March 25th, 1867, for lot in Second ward, Allegheny, fronting 22 feet on Allegheny avenue.......$450

Assault and Battery.—Joseph Hampson made information before Alderman McMasters against Aaron Lynn, charging him with assault and battery. It appears that Lynn is the proprietor of the Rock Run coal pit in Mifflin township, in which Hampson is employed as a digger, and it is alleged by the prosecutor that Lynn came into the bank where he was employed and made an assault upon him with a knife, and when he started to run threw stones at him, striking him several times. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

W. A. Gildenfenney, at 45 Fifth street, sends us the Atlantic, which seems to be remarkable principally for its poem, "The Victim," by Alfred Tennyson; Our Young Folks, which is illustrated with a fine colored print, and The Week, a new paper of the eclectic sort, which promises great things. It is composed of first class selections from first class journals at home and abroad, and is in every way equal in its sphere to the Nation, which it resembles in appearance.

Completed their Labors.—Col. J. D. Eagan and Messrs. Sims and Ochse, the efficient assessors of the Tenth ward, have just concluded their labors in a most satisfactory manner and made their report to the Commissioners. The entire ward was gone over and new assessments were made equalizing according to careful estimates made on real estate. The assessors are deserving of the highest credit for the manner in which they have discharged their duties.

A Knock Down.—Peter Connoly and Henry Burke were employed at the American Iron Works, and while at work got into a dispute about some trifling matter, which terminated in a fight. Several blows were exchanged and Peter had to succumb to the superior strength and skill of his antagonist, after which he made oath, before Justice Ammen, charging Burke with assault and battery. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

The Oakland Republicans meet this evening at the School House to nominate a candidate to fill the vacancy occasioned in Common Council by the non-election in December. The election will be held on Monday.

Mr. John W. Pittock has sent us the Atlantic and Our Young Folks. He has them for sale, opposite Postoffice.

CITY ITEMS.

What People Like.

In this age of life people like to be waited on, and why should they not? when they pay for it. In other cities it is the custom to deliver kindling wood to the citizens, and we do not know why Pittsburgh and Allegheny would not fancy the idea, when they can have it delivered free of charge, for twenty-five (25) cents per barrel, by leaving their orders at the Iron City Match Works, corner of Seventh and Grant streets. This wood is cut suitable for stoves, grates and oven-wood, being perfectly dry.

"While the Lamp Holds Out to Burn" there is a chance for restoration of health. If, therefore, the constitution has been weakened by disease or excess—the nerves shattered—the stomach weakened—the appetite gone, and all the world appears gloomy—pour some fresh oil into your lamp, in the shape of Plantation Bitters, which will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence. For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, exactly such as they require. Many families will not be without it. It has an immense sale throughout the world.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne, and at half the price. M:W:F:F

Good Goods at Gold Prices.—Having marked down my goods to gold prices I will sell my entire stock of boots and shoes of all kinds for gents, ladies, misses, and boys, at prices lower than they have been sold since the war. I warrant all my goods, having been selected with great care, and from first class houses. Parties purchasing can depend on getting a good article. Call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. No trouble to show goods. JAMES ROBB, 89 Market street.

Good Groceries.—Our Allegheny readers should remember that Mr. Arthur Kirk, Nos. 172 and 174 Federal street, Allegheny, still continues to sell his well selected stock of groceries at very low rates. Mr. K.'s store being one of the largest in the two cities he is prepared to suit the wholesale as well as the retail trade. His groceries are of such a quality as suit the most particular housekeeper, and at such prices as to suit the economical purchaser. Call at Nos. 172 and 174 Federal street, and see the stock as well as his price list.

To Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children, is an old and well-tried remedy. It has stood the test of many years, and never known to fail. It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, and gives rest and health to the child and comfort to the mother. Be sure and call for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," having the fac-simile of "Curtis & Perkins" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

To Wholesale Buyers of Dry Goods we are offering special inducements—job lots from the Eastern Auction Sales—Shawls, Dress Goods, Houskeeping Goods, Mens' Wear, Sheetings, Shirtings, Prints, &c. J. W. BARKER & Co., 59 Market street.

Constitution Water is a certain cure for Diabetes and all diseases of the kidneys. For sale by all druggists. MWF

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, December 23, 1868.

Gold opened firmer to-day at 139⅝, advanced to 139⅞, declined to 139½, and late in the afternoon reached 140⅛, from which point it receded to 140⅛. No special cause for the advance is assigned, but the uneasy feeling of the bonds at Paris and throughout Europe makes those who have any business connection with Europe exceedingly sensitive.

Government securities, in consequence of the abundance and cheapness of money at the seaboard cities, and laws to be passed by Congress favoring inflation are still tending upwards; great efforts are being now made to create a short interest, and by these spasmodic advances; the public in general are no longer buyers at present prices, and rather sell to replace at lower quotations.

The stock market has kept pace with Government securities, and is at present on a rampage; prices have just reached a point for the sanguinary to go in and see whether they cannot squeeze out another point or two before the market turns, which is not likely to be the case for some three or four weeks to come, but none but men of immense means can venture on a high market, ank they generally are the gainers, their money gives them courage to operate boldly. New York Central has touched as high a point as it ever reached, and it may be maintained high above par; the earnings will, no doubt, largely increase from the additional profits of the express business; the express companies contracts with most of the trunk lines are not to be renewed after expiration.

Closing New York quotations, received by Ph. R. Mertz, were as follows:

Gold, 139⅝; 1881's, 110⅝; 5-20s, 1862, 110⅝; 1864, 108; 1865, 109¼; Consols, 106½; 10-40s, 103⅛; 7-30s, 106⅝.

—Mr. Henderson introduced into the Senate on Tuesday a bill, which was referred to the finance committe, providing for the payment of compound interest notes and 3 per cent certificates by an issue of legal tender notes, not exceeding $400,000,000, including the amount already outstanding. Provision is also made for consolidating the indebtedness of the United States by bonds bearing interest at the rate of 3½ per cent., principal and interest payable in coin, redeemable at the pleasure of the Government at any time within fifty years, and within ten years after their issue, etc., etc.

—The conversion of the seven-thirty Treasury notes is going on steadily. So far in January, the average work in this field has been about three hundred thousand dollars a day. At date of last debt statements there were outstanding of all series of seven-thirties about two hundred and forty millions. The direct conversionary terms of the Government remain unchanged as yet. A sale of the seven-thirties in open market, and a purchase of the five-twenties in the same place, makes a more advantageous conversion than the one offered by the Government.

—The payment of the loan of 1847 has been going on very rapidly. In New York in the first four days of the month, nearly three millions of these matured twenty years bonds were discharged. The Secretary of the Treasury has notified the holders of this loan of 1847 that they will be deemed to to have waived the right of present payment if they do not send in their bonds before February 1. All not presented by February 1 will be paid, with the interest, whenever the Government gets ready or sees fit. Interest ceased on the 31st December upon all the bonds of the loan of 1847, except those which are not to be presented for payment until after February 1st.

—A movement is on foot in the Ohio Legislature to again restore the old law recognizing ten per cent. interest as not illegal when a matter of special contract. Business men generally approve this proposition, and in cities go further—the most experienced dealers in money favoring free trade in it upon the theory that the law of supply and demand will regulate its value. The six per cent. restriction is a practical absurdity. It is exceeded continually, and scarcely with any concern for the requirements of the law or apprehensions of a penalty.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, January 23, 1868.

CATTLE.

The market for Cattle was rather dull, and notwithstanding the supply was not larger than usual, it was nevertheless considerably in excess of the demand. We have no doubt but what buyers could have been found for all the best cattle on sale, at a reduction of from 25 to 50c below the prices of last week; but to this, as a general thing, sellers refused to accede, and, as a consequence, the volume of business was exceedingly light. Some holders, unable to get what they considered a fair price here, shipped on further east; it is an old saying, that "people sometimes go further and fare worse," and it would not be surprising if this would be the result in the case above referred to. The eastern markets were hard this week, and with the present feeling and soft and unsettled weather, the chances are in favor of its being hard next week, though it is very difficult to tell. The transactions in cattle have been remarkably light at these yards for some time past, and the number of eastern buyers seems to be diminishidg each week. We are informed that the majority of the Philadelphia dealers are now, and have been for some weeks past, buying in Baltimore, and this, as a matter of course, is having its effect on business here.

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold 18 head for Kurtzman to Aull at 5; 36 head for E. Casterline to Peter Klemen at 7; 19 head for Deetz to Pidcock & Co. at 6 19; 17 head for L. B Doud to same buyer at 7; 3 for same to same at 6¼; 16 for same to W. Hedges at 7¼, and 2 at 6¼; 28 for Hardy to Klemen at 6¼.

Smith & Talmage sold 18 head of good fat cattle for Former to Davis at 7¾—two car loads unsold.

Hedges & Taylor sold 17 head for Hawk to Young at 7¼; 19 head for McFadden to Roth, rather common, at 6¼; 35 for Brinerhoff to Klemen at 7¼; shipped 4 car loads to Philadelphia.

T. Lamb sold 19 head of fairish stock, weighing 21,035, to L. Shamberg at 6¼; Klemen sold Metzler 6 head cows at 4¼.

John Moss sold Smith & Mooney 13 head of prime fat cattle, weighing 20,455, at 8. Fairall to Klemen 18 good fat cattle at 7¾.

M. A. Welsh sold Pidcock & Co. 15 head of good fat stock at 7½.

SHEEP.

The Sheep market was also a little dull this week, under the influence of a diminished demand and unfavorable advices from the east; but, as the supply was light, the decline in prices was not as great as it would otherwise have been. The quality of Sheep on sale this week was not near up to that of last week, and all things considered, the reduction did not exceed ¼ to ⅜ of a cent per pound, though taking the sales as a basis, a decline of about one cent per pound would appear—the highest prices reported, 5¾ to 5¼, against 6 to 6¼ last week. The following are the reported sales:

Hedges & Taylor sold 74 head for Kiser & Suber to Pearce at 3½; Smith & Talmage sold 173 for Erwin to Pidcock & Co. at 4,65; 67 for Entriken to Deitrich at 4¾ per head; Stafford sold Rauie 184 head at 5¼. Pidcock & Co. bought 198 from Craft at 4½; 178 from Deetz at 5; 183 from Zimmerman at 4¾; 180 from Crawford & Cameron at 4¾, and 174 from Huffman at 5,15. Pidcock & Co. sold 201 to Hesser at 5¼, and 199 to same at 5¼. Pancoast bought 182 from Weary at 4¼, and 88 from Bloomfield—price not named.

HOGS.

The Hog market, also, has been less active during the past week, the sales in the aggregate being rather light, but with a continued fair demand and light arrivals, prices are pretty well sustained. As will be seen by reference to sales, New York shippers paid from 6¾@7c, while Philadelphia buyers paid from 7¼@7½c, and these may be regarded as the ruling quotations for these classes of Hogs. The quality of Hogs, as a general thing, continues good, and all things considered, prices are not as high as some growers expected they would be.

Glass, Lafferty & Co. sold 90 head for Braden to E. Smith at 6,65; 87 for Lane to Pearce & Co. at 7; 117 for Cree & Harris to Pearce & Co. at 7; 138 for same to Singer & Imhoff at 7¼; 116 for Dougherty to Gilchreist & Co. at 7; 259 for same to same at 7½; 288 for same to Crouse & Co. at 6,85; 97 for same to same at 7¼; 71 for Gray to Pidcock & Co. at 6,85; 41 for Willis to Gilchreist & Co. at 7; 102 for Buchanan to Pidcock & Co. at 5,60; 124 for Holmes & Pfeffer to Smith at 7; 126 for L. B. Doud to Smith at 6,90; 72 for Braden to Pidcock & Co. at 6¾; 91 for Holmes & Pfeffer to Gilchreist & Co. at 7,35; 102 for Petty to Pearce at 6¾; 116 for Doud to Pearce at 6¾; 95 for Dougherty & Co. to Crouse & Co. at 7¼; 115 for same to same at 6¾; 48 for Williams to Carpenter at 6,70, 86 for same to Smith at 7,40; 58 for Holmes & Bro. to Singer & Imhoff at 7¼; 355 for Doud to Messenger, Gillett & Co. at 6¾.

Hedges & Taylor sold 123 head for Miller, Boyer & Co. to Messenger, Gillett & Co. at 6¾; 28 for Roenbaugh to Pearce, common, at 6½; 55 for Kiser & Suber to same at 6,75; 47 for Davis same at 6 90; 110 for same to Messenger, Gillett & Co. at 7¼; 121 for Kidwell to Crouse & Co. (nice but light) at 7,20.

Messenger, Gillett & Co. bought 13 head from Pidcock & Co. at 6¾; 67 from Nick at 6 95; 99 from John Moss at 6 95; 237 from Gearhart at 6,85; 78 from Keyes at 6.65; 67 from Breeze at 6.20; 355 from Lafferty at 6¾.

Gilchreist & Co. bought 90 head from Wolfe at 7 40; 259 from Glass, Lafferty & Co. at 7½; 164 from same at 7; 90 from Allerton at 7¼; 91 from Glass, Lafferty & Co. at 7,35; 312 from J. Berry at 7,17½. Shipped four car loads to Philadelphia on commission.

Singer & Imhoff bought 42 head from Sowers at 7,15; 191 from A. Johnston at 7¼; 89 from C. Miller at 7¼; 78 from Johnston at 7,25; 137 from Holmes at 7¼; 49 from Miller at 7,20; 146 from McWhinning at 7¼; 93 from Smith at 7,45; 16 from Hedges at 7,30; 277 from Sands at 7⅜; 56 from Holmes at 7,40; 58 from same at 7¼; 240 from Stage & Co. at 7,65.

Crouse, Emerick & Co. bought 90 head from Motzler at 7¼; 121 from Cutting at 6,45; 103 from Sands & Co. at 6,70.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, January 23, 1868.

The general markets continue dull and considerably neglected, and while the demand for almost everything is restricted to supplying wants, prices are without material change.

GRAIN—Wheat is steady but unchanged; we continue to quote at $2,65 for Red, and $2,65 for White, and $2,30@2,35 for No. 1 Spring. Oats in fair demand at 65@66c, on track, and 68@70c, in store. Barley is in good demand and scarce; prime Spring may be quoted at $1,80@1,85. Corn is rather dull but unchanged at $1@1,05 for new. Rye is in steady demand at $1,40@1,45.

FLOUR—Continues dull, but prices are unchanged at $11@11,50 for Spring; $12@12,50 for Winter Wheat, and $14,50@15,50 for fancy brandz. Rye Flour is steady at $8 50 per bbl Buckwheat is dull and nominal at $4,50.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and steady but unchanged at 10½c for Shoulders; 12½c for Ribbed Sides, and 16@16½c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is still quoted at 13@13¼c for prime kettle rendered in tierces and barrels, and 13¾@14c, in kegs. Mess Pork, $22. Dried Beef, 19@20.

BUTTER—Prime to choice Roll is in steady demand, with sales at 35@38c—mostly at 39@40c.

EGGS—Unchanged at 40c.

MILL FEED—Is quiet and unchanged; we continue to quote at $1 50@1,55 for Bran; $1,70@1,75 for Seconds, and $1,90@2,25 for Middlings.

APPLES—Is in steady demand but unchanged; sales at $3,50@4,50 per barrel, for good to choice; and $2,50@3,00 per bbl for common.

POTATOES—Dull but unchanged; sales in store at $1@1,10 per bushel, and $3,25@3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues very dull and the supply is largely in excess of the demand; Peaches may be quoted at 7@8c for quarters, and 11@12c for halves. Apples, 7@8c.

ONIONS—None in market—may be quoted in the absence of sales, at $3 per bushel.

LARD OIL—Is still quoted by manufacturers at 85c for No. 2, and $1,10 for No. 1.

HAY—Is selling from country wagons at $18@22, as to quality.

SEEDS—Small sales of Cloverseed at $7,80. Flaxseed is in demand at $2,35. No movement in Timothy.

BEANS—Dull at $2@3,25.

HOMINY—Quoted at $7@7,50.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted at $13@15.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, January 23, 1868.

CRUDE—There was not a single operation in Crude oil to day that we could hear of, though there seemed to be a firmer feeling, especially for March and April. Spot oil was in demand at 7c, with but little offering, and we believe holders generally are asking 7¼ to 7½. For March and April, seller's option, holders are now asking 8c—sale late last evening of 4000 bbls for these months, at 7¾c—there may have been some "spot cash" connected with this operation. The firmness above noted may be attributed to an advance at the wells, as there is nothing in the tone of eastern or foreign advices to justify an upward movement.

REFINED—There is no improvement to note in the general tone of the market for bonded oil—not a single transaction reported to-day. There is some inquiry for January at 23½c for standard white, and 23¾c for prime white, but there are no sellers in this market at these prices. February is still quoted at 23½c for standard white; March at 24c, and April 24½c. As we predicted some days since the shipments are already beginning to fall off, and after all the January oil has been sent forward, we expect to see the exports down to where they were about the first of the month.

Receipts of Wheat at Milwaukee.

The Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, of Milwaukee, says: It has been ascertained that the deliveries of wheat by teams, during the year, amounted to the sum of 891,264 bushels, in addition to those by railroad and lake, thus making the total receipts for the year 12,023,464 bushels. Including the receipts of flour, reduced to wheat, the aggregate is a little over 15,000,000 bushels, of which about 75 per cent, came forward during the last four months of the year.

RIVER NEWS.

The river, under the influence of the recent soft weather, is rising at this point, the Monongahela marks last evening indicating nearly four feet. As the present thaw seems to be general, a rise of some importance may be looked for unless the weather should suddenly turn cold, and of this, there is not much appearance at this writing. We should not be surprised to find considerable floating ice in the river to-day, as it will not stick together long with the water over it, and the weather warm and thawing as rapidly as it did yesterday.

Mr. A. C. McConnell, clerk of the Minnie, which boat has been absent from here since September last, is here on a visit to his family. At present she is laid up at Carondelet, below St. Louis, and since leaving here last she has been engaged in the St. Louis and Arkansas river trade.

Capt. Jas. Mellon, of the Glendale, will leave for Wheeling in the early train this morning to bring her up to Pittsburgh.

From December 27th until January 21st, the following named towboats arrived at Louisville from Pittsburgh, with tows of coal: Sam Roberts, Hornet, V. F. Wilson, Simpson Horner, Ella, Mary Ann, Baltic, Fred Wilson, and Bengal Tiger. The Simpson Horner and Baltic passed on down to New Orleans.

General G. K. Warren has been voted thanks by the St. Paul Chamber of Commerce, for his services in improving the navigation of the Mississippi and Minnesota Rivers, in accordance with the act of Congress under which he was assigned to that duty.

The Cannon line paid William Richardson, late commander of the R. E. Lee $6000 a year in order to keep him from running an opposition boat. He is the only man on the Mississippi that Capt. John Cannon envies, on account of his great popularity.

The Vicksburg papers, with the advent of the Gov. Allen in the Vicksburg and Louisville trade, look for a more intensely exciting season than they have had since the days of the magnificent Eclipse and gallant old Natchez.

Samuel L. Vawter, a native of Indiana, and well known in business circles at St. Paul, recently died there, much respected. The family name was well known for a while in Ohio and Mississippi boating circles.

The Quincy Herald of Thursday has an important article, stating that the river mail contract has been awarded to the St. Louis and Quincy packet company, a new line in direct opposition to the wealthy old Keokuk line; that stock in it to the amount of $50,000 has been taken by the Hannibal and St. Joe, and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Companies, and that three boats will be added to the line soon after the resumption of navigation. Next days' Whig says it is all a mistake about railroads having taken stock, and the closing of a mail contract.

In a late article on the New Orleans and Vicksburg trade, the Vicksburg Times remarked as follows: We heard yesterday, from very good authority, that the Quitman was to take the place of the Lee, as the Tuesday packet from New Orleans, while the Champion will take care of the Allen on Monday. The Allen and the Lee, by thus dividing the business of one day, will necessarily lose money, and should the competition grow so warm as to cause a general reduction of prices, as was the case in 1865, when freight was shipped from New Orleans to this place at 10 cents per package, and cotton carried to New Orleans for 50c per bale, the losses each trip the rival packets make will loom up into the thousands.

Captain Wm. Gore has sold his one-third interest in the steamer Henry Adkins to Capt. Pres. Lodwick, of Cincinnati, and Mr. Allen, for $6,500.

Capt. J. B. Hall, an old Democratic editor, and a prominent marine representative, is in command of the Tennessee, in the Cairo and Memphis trade.

The Rockville Whig, of the 15th, says, that owing to the recent heavy rains, the Wabash river has been higher than it has been since the freshet of last spring. The ferry boats suspended operations for several days, and the steamers are plying the Chattanooga with a fine trade.

The Great Republic and Richmond left Cairo on Tuesday together for New Orleans.

They have at Dubuque better ice than has been seen here this season. It is 21 inches thick at Dubuque, on the river, and Cushing & Co. are taking out 200 tons per day.

A late St. Louis exchange says: It is asserted that the owners of the immense steamer Lizzie Gill design employing her temporarily in the Missouri this year. The larger river steamers may occasionally reach Forts Rice and Randall, and even Benton. River men anticipate a very good business in the Missouri this year, more particularly that portion of it between Leavenworth and St. Louis, and perhaps as far up as Omaha. It is calculated, however, that there will be mountain business for a more than one-third of the boats put down for a trip to Benton this year.

The Antelope is in the list of boats set down for the mountains this year. She is being extensively altered, at a cost of $8,000.

ST. LOUIS, January 21.—Weather mild. The river has come to a stand, having risen about 2 feet. A one-third interest in the steamer Henry Adkins has been sold for $6,500, to John Adkins. D. S. Carter and others are to-day negotiating for the purchase of seven-eights of the steamer Mountaineer. There is a reliable statement as to a gorge of ice extending from a point two miles above St. Genevieve to St. Mary's twenty miles. Men, women and children have been crossing on it for several days.

NEW ALBANY, January 21.—The river has fallen 3 feet 4 inches since Saturday—now 5 feet 6 inches in the canal, and 2 feet in the pass down Indian chute. Emma No. 2, New Orleans to Cincinnati, 3 a. m.; Emperor, Memphis to Cincinnati, 11 noon to-day. The river is about at a stand. The ice, which was light and soft yesterday, is again getting harder and thicker. Large quantities of corn are being received here from below for the eastern and European markets. Business on the wharf is more active than for the past seven months. Rained, sleeted and snowed off and on all day yesterday. About six inches snow fell here last; three inches at Greencastle, and one inch at Mitchell. The Emperor is full of cotton. The Atlantic and barges left Vicksburg yesterday morning; she has been detained by bad weather.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Wednesday, says: The bodies of three or four men, supposed to be from the wreck of the exploded Harry Dean, were reported washed ashore, Monday night, near the mouth of the Little Miami river. Two were supposed to be the bodies of Capt. Geo. W. Norton, of Ironton, Ohio, and Capt. R. M. Biggs, of Ashland, Kentucky, for which a reward of $200 each was offered by their friends. Parties in this city can easily recognize both, and the result of the Coroner's inquest will decide this melancholy matter. We have since learned that the report is doubtless incorrect, as the Coroner has no reliable information relative to the finding of the aforesaid bodies.

The Gazette, of same date, says: In the Court reports will be found an interesting decision of the General Term of the Superior Court, delivered by Judge Storer, in the case of C. F. Baker against the Central Insurance Company, where the owner of the steamer Sioux City, sought and recovered for the loss of the hull and cabin, in December, 1865, by the ice at St. Louis, after the machinery was removed. The Court held that the removal of the machinery, unless done temporarily, for the purpose of repairs, forfeited the policy of insurance.

A Louisville telegram, under date of Tuesday, has the following: The Starlight, Emma No. 2, and Emperor, from below, passed up, having been delayed by ice in the Lower Ohio. Capt. Tobias' new packet, Frank Paragoud, was damaged $800 by the falling of her chimney. The Alpha and Bermuda are due from below; also the Dexter, with 175 tons of groceries for re-shipment to Cincinnati. The Cora, S, and P. W. Strader, passed Cairo yesterday, and are due here on Thursday. The Laurel Hill left New Orleans on Monday. The Minneola left Memphis for Cincinnati on Saturday, with 1,300 bales of cotton. About thirty steamers are laid up at Cairo. The Armadillo and Argosy, bound northward, left Memphis on Friday.
